14-19 Education and Skills Ruth Kelly, Great Britain. Department for Education and Skills, 2005 This White Paper details the Government's 10 year reform programme for secondary and post secondary education for 14 19 year olds and sets out its response to the recommendations of the Tomlinson report Working Group on 14 19 Reform final report available at www.1419reform.gov.uk published in October 2004. Proposals include i retention of GCSEs and A levels as the cornerstones of the education system rather than adopting a universal baccalaureate style qualification but making improvements such as ensuring it is impossible to get a GCSE grade C or above without functional numeracy and literacy skills promoting science GCSEs allowing the most able A level students to take HE modules in the sixth form and reducing the assessment burden at A level ii introducing new specialised Diplomas covering both academic and vocational subjects as well as work experience at three levels equivalent to foundation GCSE and advanced level. The first four Diplomas will be available by 2008 for information and communication technology ICT engineering health and social care creative and media subjects iii developing a pilot programme for 14 16 year olds by 2007 08 based on the post 16 Entry to Employment programme which will give pupils intensive personal guidance and support involve significant work based learning lead to a level 1 Diploma with a range of further options including apprenticeships iv other proposals including introducing models of moderated teacher assessment in compulsory subjects to help raise standards across the curriculum and introducing a pupil profile for all 14 year old to record their cross curricula achievements

Teacher Education in Professional Learning

Communities Xuefeng Huang,2018-06-20 This book explores the unique experiences of a sister school network in Canada and China contextualized through the lens of the Reciprocal Learning Project which supports the relationship between a school network and teacher education exchange program of two countries. Huang uses theoretical viewpoints from teacher learning and comparative education research to analyse and interpret what has happened in the emerging cross cultural school network. The book juxtaposes teacher learning and comparative education research from Shanghai and Ontario as teachers in the two places interact and provides detailed descriptions of teacher collaboration to show how these collaborations were initiated developed and sustained as well as the impact brought about from these collaborations. The book offers a unique opportunity to examine how Canadian and Chinese teachers receive and react to opportunities of cross cultural collaboration and learning
