Talithia Williams

Maths Pmemo Nov 2013:

Disorder and the Disinformation Society Jonathan Paul Marshall, James Goodman, Didar Zowghi, Francesca da Rimini, 2015-04-17 This book is the first general social analysis that seriously considers the daily experience of information disruption and software failure within contemporary Western society Through an investigation of informationalism defined as a contemporary form of capitalism it describes the social processes producing informational disorder While most social theory sees disorder as secondary pathological or uninteresting this book takes disordering processes as central to social life The book engages with theories of information society which privilege information order offering a strong counterpoint centred on disinformation Disorder and the Disinformation Society offers a practical agenda arguing that difficulties in producing software are both inherent to the process of developing software and in the social dynamics of informationalism It outlines the dynamics of software failure as they impinge on of information workers and on daily life explores why computerized finance has become inherently self disruptive asks how digital enclosure and intellectual property create conflicts over cultural creativity and disrupt informational accuracy and scholarship and reveals how social media can extend but also distort the development of social movements

Power in Numbers Talithia Williams, 2018-04-10 From rocket scientists to code breakers fascinating stories of women who overcame obstacles shattered stereotypes and pursued their passion for math Notices of the American Mathematical Society With more than 200 photos and original interviews with several of the amazing women covered Power in Numbers The Rebel Women of Mathematics is a full color volume that puts a spotlight on the influence of women on the development of mathematics over the last two millennia Each biography reveals the life of a different female mathematician from her childhood and early influences to the challenges she faced and the great achievements she made in spite of them Learn how After her father terminated her math lessons Sofia Kovalevskaya snuck algebra books into her bed to read at night Emmy Noether became an invaluable resource to Albert Einstein while she was in the Navy Native American rocket scientist Mary Golda Ross developed designs for fighter jets and missiles in a top secret unit Katherine Johnson's life or death calculations at NASA meant that astronauts such as Alan Shepard and John Glenn made it home alive Shakuntala Devi multiplied massive numbers in her head so her family could eat at night Pamela Harris proved her school counselors wrong when they told her she would only succeed as a bilingual secretary Carla Cotwright Williams began her life in the dangerous streets of South Central Los Angeles before skyrocketing to a powerful career with the Department of Defense in Washington DC These women are a diverse group but their stories have one thing in common At some point on their journeys someone believed in them and made them think the impossible was perhaps not so impossible A quick read full of dramatic stories and eye catching illustrations MAA Reviews I found myself marveling at the personal anecdotes and quotes throughout the book Notices of the American Mathematical Society

Mentoring in STEM Through a Female Identity Lens: Heroes Make a Difference for Women Cecilia (Ceal) D. Craig, 2024-09-24 With the stagnant low percentages of women in STEM careers identifying practices to satisfy the growing need for professionals in those fields is critical to improve recruitment and retention Supportive relationships like mentors and sponsors have been shown to both inspire women to pursue those careers and to help them succeed in them This book explores how developing supportive connections helps students faculty and teachers see STEM professions as being a place for women to grow and succeed Early chapters provide essential mentor characteristics and explore engineering education gender inequity from a teacher s perspective of stereotypes stereotype threat and bias offering culturally relevant teacher mentoring approaches to promote equitable pre college engineering education Middle chapters describe K 12 mentoring programs mentorship initiatives empowering young South African Women and girls to advance to mathematical related careers programs methods and activities to achieve the desired goal of making young students aspire to become scientists and engagement year round in grades 9 12 combined with 40 years of iterative evaluation created a finely honed enrichment program for low income Black women in urban public high schools A longitudinal undergraduate mentoring program for mentoring early college students in Louisiana provides further insights in that section The final four chapter section describes mentoring programs for professors and teachers reciprocal mentor relationships and role shifting within an informal peer mentoring group differences between mentoring relationships and sponsoring relationships within academia the impact of culturally responsive mentorship CRM on the development and expression of a pre service teacher s woman of science identity and a program that aims to recruit and retain STEM pre service teachers and STEM teachers of color With several longitudinal mentoring programs several programs for women of color this book fills a gap to help grow the numbers of women in STEM
