The World-Literary System and the Atlantic Sorcha Gunne, Neil Lazarus, 2020-12-30 The World Literary System and the Atlantic grapples with key questions about how American studies and the Atlantic region in general engages with new considerations of literary comparativism international literary space and the world literary system The edited collection furthers these discussions by placing them into a relationship with the theory of combined and uneven development a theory that has a long pedigree in Marxist sociology and political economy and that continues to stimulate debate across the social sciences but whose implications for culture have received less attention Drawing on the comparative modes concepts and methods being developed in the new world literary studies the essays cover a diverse range of topics such as the periodization of world literature racism and the world system singular modernity critical realism commodity frontiers semi peripherality and world ecology The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Atlantic Studies

The Chinese Constitution of Central Asia N. Godehardt, 2014-03-21 China's commitments in Central Asia illustrate how regional foreign policy works and how long standing principles of Chinese foreign policy might be revised in the near future China's rise has moved Asia which is why it seems that what we have traditionally regarded as the geographic and political scope of Asia might actually considerably change in the near future Nadine Godehardt gives crucial insights into the Chinese expert discourse on Central Asia analyzing how Chinese experts define Central Asia when they talk and write about policy issues related to China's immediate Western neighbourhood In this context she gives an inside perspective on Chinese voices whose meanings are rarely examined in Chinese International Relations studies

Geopolitics and Development Marcus Power, 2019-01-25 Geopolitics and Development examines the historical emergence of development as a form of governmentality from the end of empire to the Cold War and the War on Terror It illustrates the various ways in which the meanings and relations of development as a discourse an apparatus and an aspiration have been geopolitically imagined and enframed The book traces some of the multiple historical associations between development and diplomacy and seeks to underline the centrality of questions of territory security statehood and sovereignty to the pursuit of development along with its enrolment in various bordering practices In making a case for greater attention to the evolving nexus between geopolitics and development and with particular reference to Africa the book explores the historical and contemporary geopolitics of foreign aid the interconnections between development and counterinsurgency the role of the state and social movements in re-imagining development the rise of re-emerging donors like China India and Brazil and the growing significance of South-South flows of investment trade and development cooperation Drawing on post-colonial and postdevelopment approaches and on some of the author's own original empirical research this is an essential critical and interdisciplinary analysis of the complex and dynamic political geographies of global development. Primarily intended for scholars and post graduate students in development studies, human geography, African studies and international relations, this book provides an engaging, invaluable and up to date resource for making sense of the complex entanglement between geopolitics and development past and present.

Innovations in Urban and Regional Systems Jean-Claude Thill, 2020-05-11. This book presents cutting edge research on urban and regional systems applying modern spatial analytical techniques of Geographic Information Science Technologies, GIS, T spatial statistics and location modeling. The contributions written by leading scholars from around the globe adopt a spatially explicit analytical perspective and highlight methodological innovations and substantive breakthroughs on many facets of the socioeconomic and environmental reality of urban and regional contexts. The book is divided into three parts. The first part offers an introduction to the research field while the second part discusses critical issues in urban growth and urban management presenting case studies on city and urban environments, their growth data, infrastructures and spatial and management issues. The third part then broadens the analysis to the regional scale addressing growth, convergence and adaptation to new economic and information based realities. This book appeals to scholars of spatial and regional sciences as well as to policy decision makers interested in advanced methods of spatial analysis, location modeling and GIS. T

Islamic Development in Palestine Stephen Royle, 2016-10-04. This book assesses the capabilities of an Islamic approach in aiding self organisation by examining the case of the occupied Palestinian territories in conjunction with a comparative analysis of four other nations. Three main mechanisms of Islamic development are explored: finance, microfinance and charity. Identifying the need to recognise the non linear nature of societal interaction at the individual, community and state levels, the book uses complexity theory to better understand development. It assesses the role of Islamic development at macro and micro levels and identifies issues with rigid and hierarchical policy making.

Introducing the IB Diploma Programme Marc Abrioux, Jill Rutherford, 2013-02-14. Schools wishing to introduce the IB diploma programme are faced with major investment in terms of time, effort and money in order to become authorised. This manual is a resource for schools already offering the diploma as well as for prospective diploma schools.

Survival October-November 2020: Pandemics and politics The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS), 2023-04-21. Survival, the IISS's bimonthly journal, challenges conventional wisdom and brings fresh, often controversial perspectives on strategic issues of the moment. In this issue, Adam Roberts explores pandemics and politics through the ages, arguing that trust in leadership is essential in the struggle against infectious diseases. Rebecca Barber and Sarah Teitt contend that ASEAN should take a more activist approach to the Rohingya crisis to salvage its credibility. Greg Austin assesses the strategic implications of China's weak cyber defences. Ystein Tunsj casts doubt on the prospect of the Arctic becoming a theatre of great power conflict. And eight more thought provoking pieces as well as our regular book reviews and

Noteworthy column The European Union and the Geopolitics of the Arctic Andreas Raspotnik,2018-01-26 The Arctic is a region that has seen exponential growth as a space of geopolitical interest over the past decade This insightful book is the first to analyse the European Union s Arctic policy endeavours of the early 21st Century from a critical geopolitical perspective Contemporary Regional Development in Africa Kobena T. Hanson,2016-03-09 Contemporary Regional Development in Africa interrogates well known concerns in the areas of regionalism and economic integration in contemporary Africa while offering an added uniqueness by highlighting the capacity imperatives of the issues and proposing critical policy guideposts The volume juxtaposes a set of dynamic entanglements new and micro regionalism informal cross border trade intra African and African FDI plus cross border investments infrastructure development science and technology regional value chains conflict management and regional security with fluid interpretations of regional development The chapters provide snapshots of the several emerging and complex regionalisms and highlight a set of relevant and often overlapping analyses drawing on authors nuanced and granular understanding of the African landscape The varied yet interlinked nature of issues covered in this study make the book valuable and attractive to academics researchers policymakers and development practitioners Arctic governance Elana Wilson Rowe,2018-06-08 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The volume explores a question that sheds light on the contested but largely cooperative nature of Arctic governance in the post Cold War period How does power matter and how has it mattered in shaping cross border cooperation and diplomacy in the Arctic The role of power in global governance cooperation has been explored in international relations and political geography literature yet largely overlooked in an Arctic context Through carefully selected case studies from Russia s role in the Arctic Council to the diplomacy of indigenous peoples organizations this book seeks to shed light on how power performances are enacted to constantly shore up Arctic cooperation in key ways The conceptually driven nature of the inquiry makes the book appropriate reading for courses in international relations and political geography while the carefully selected case studies lend themselves to courses on Arctic politics The Water-Energy-Food Nexus in the Middle East and North Africa Martin Keulertz,Eckart Woertz,2017-10-02 This book discusses key issues concerning water energy and food in the Middle East and North Africa MENA region It provides an interdisciplinary account of current developments in the most water scarce and conflict torn region in the world Key analysts on MENA water agriculture and energy affairs have been drawn together to compile one of the first edited volumes dedicated to the crucial role of water energy and food security in the 21st century MENA region It will be of interest to decision makers analysts and students of the future of the Middle East from a broad range of disciplines including the physical and social sciences This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of Water Resources Development Fluid Modernity Gilberto Conde,2022-10-31 Fluid Modernity offers an innovative encompassing historical grasp of the politics of water in the Middle East in the context of modern capitalism and world politics Drawing upon conceptions of power by Foucault and Agamben it examines how water through its modern capitalist production is transformed into a water apparatus that binds people to power In trans boundary watercourses states get involved in the formation of international governmentalities The book revisits the history of fluid modernity in the Middle East from late Ottoman times to the present It focuses on water conflict and cooperation between states Israel and Arab states and Turkey Syria and Iraq on state policies towards subaltern subjects Israel and Turkey in relation to Palestinians and Kurds respectively and on the water politics of rebellious movements After a conceptual chapter discussing fluid modernity the book traces water politics in the region in a diachronic perspective It explores how water diplomacy infrastructure loans reservoir construction discourses of sovereignty and conflict have weighed on the development of governance and governmentality in the region Fluid Modernity will be of great interest to postgraduates researchers academics and intellectuals interested in Middle East Studies Hydropolitics Water and Society Geopolitics Political Theory Resistance as well as to NGOs dealing with water

Fabricating Lureland Julia Winckler, 2021-12-06 Through the analysis of surviving archival traces this book constructs a history of the imagination and memory of the town of Peacehaven Built as a speculative development atop iconic chalk cliffs on the Sussex Coast and marketed as a garden city by the sea the estate quickly attracted adverse publicity Influential voices such as the Bloomsbury group s Virginia and Leonard Woolf architect and writer Clough Williams Ellis and the Campaign for the Protection of Rural England soon began to criticise it as a blot on the rolling pastoral downland Instead of reading and appraising Peacehaven s story in a polarized way this book breaks new ground by critically interpreting visual representations and commissioned photographs of the Estate and re evaluating propositions from its inception which aspired to secure improved public health and home ownership in direct response to the negative impact of industrialization and WWI Focusing on the interwar period and tracing mutating agendas the book investigates contested marketing and construction narratives through Histoire Crois e methodology and its intercrossings with memory and the imagination By combining visual and creative research methods with oral history multi layered narratives of place come into focus The study tracks the visual programme of the developer s in house magazine Peacehaven Post alongside previously underexplored blueprints photographs postcards and promotional guidebooks and considers the garden city narrative as a form of social Utopia Garden city ideals are once again evoked in debates as a potential solution to the ongoing national housing shortage giving this research additional urgency as new large scale redevelopment erases many of the few and fast disappearing original landmarks

The SAGE Handbook of Human Geography, 2v Roger Lee, Noel Castree, Rob Kitchin, Vicky Lawson, Anssi Paasi, Chris Philo, Sarah Radcliffe, Susan M. Roberts, Charles Withers, 2014-05-22 Superb How refreshing to see a Handbook that eschews convention and explores the richness and diversity of the geographical imagination in such stimulating and challenging ways Peter Dicken University of Manchester Stands out as an innovative and exciting contribution that exceeds the genre Sallie A Marston University of Arizona Captures wonderfully the richness and complexity of the worlds that human beings inhabit This is a stand out among handbooks Lily Kong National University of Singapore This wonderfully unconventional book demonstrates human geography s character and significance not by marching through traditional themes but by presenting a set of geographical essays on basic ideas practices and concerns Alexander B Murphy University of Oregon This SAGE Handbook stands out for its capacity to provoke the reader to think anew about human geography essays that offer some profoundly original insights into what it means to engage geographically with the world Eric Sheppard UCLA Published in association with the journal Progress in Human Geography edited and written by the principal scholars in the discipline this Handbook demonstrates the difference that thinking about the world geographically makes Each section considers how human geography shapes the world interrogates it and intervenes in it It includes a major retrospective and prospective introductory essay with three substantive sections on Imagining Human Geographies Practising Human Geographies Living Human Geographies The Handbook also has an innovative multimedia component of conversations about key issues in human geography as well as an overview of human geography from the Editors A key reference for any scholar interested in questions about what difference it makes to think spatially or geographically about the world this Handbook is a rich and textured statement about the geographical imagination

Infusing IB Philosophy and Pedagogy into Chinese Language Teaching Mark S. K. Shum, 2015-10-30 This book not only examines what IB philosophy is it also explores the relationship between IB philosophy and Chinese language and culture and introduces a lot of useful and creative teaching pedagogies and methodologies Most importantly this book fills the gap of implementing IB philosophy and pedagogy into Chinese language teaching

Visual Politics and North Korea David Shim, 2013-10-15 In the realm of international relations there are seemingly few states like North Korea Whether it is the country s human rights situation its precarious everyday life or its so called foreign policy of coercion and nuclear brinkmanship no matter what this pariah nation says and does it affects the state and stability of regional and global politics But what do we know about North Korea and how do we come to know it This book argues that visual imagery plays a decisive role in this operation By discussing two exemplary areas everyday photography and satellite imagery the book takes into account the role of images in the way that particular issues related to North Korea are understood in contemporary geopolitics Images work They do something by evoking a particular perspective of what is shown in them allowing only specific ways of seeing and knowing In this sense images are deeply political Individual methodological usages in the book can provide a procedural basis from which to start or rethink further studies on visibility both in IR and beyond It also opens an innovative path for future studies on East Asia making the book attractive to a range of specialists and thus holding an appeal beyond the boundaries of a single discipline

European Products Gisela Welz, 2015-09-01 On the Mediterranean island of Cyprus rural villages traditional artefacts even atmospheres and experiences are considered heritage Heritage making not only protects but also produces things people and places Since the Republic of Cyprus joined the European Union in 2004 heritage making and Europeanization are increasingly intertwined in Greek Cypriot society Against the backdrop of a long term ethnographic engagement the author argues that heritage emerges as an increasingly standardized economic resource a European product Implemented in historic preservation rural tourism culinary traditions nature protection and urban restoration projects heritage policy has become infused with transnational market regulations and neoliberal property regimes
