¹The failure of many individuals to participate in past health fairs and screenings is one of our greatest concerns. In order to improve the effectiveness of future health fairs, we are developing a number of strategies to increase the quality and efficiency of such participation. The members of your partnership have suggested three innovations (submitted by Howard W. Jones & Co., Inc.) for the incorporation of the questionnaire type of self-assessment (past fairs). The inclusion of such self-assessment questionnaire, if utilized or published, will
