Mckinsey Report On Schools:

The Politics of Differentiation in Schools Martin Mills, Amanda Keddie, Peter Renshaw, Sue Monk, 2016-10-26 In many English speaking countries teachers are encouraged to differentiate their classrooms and in some cases through various policy mechanisms This encouragement is often accompanied by threats and sanctions for not making the grade By exploring the ways in which one education system in Australia has mandated differentiation through an audit of teacher practices this book provides a timely engagement with the relationship between differentiated classrooms and social justice It covers tensions for instance between providing culturally appropriate classrooms including constructing engaging and relevant curricula and lowering expectations for students who have traditionally been marginalised by schooling The data for this book has been collected from the same group of teachers over a period of three years and offers detailed insights into how a particular politics of differentiation has played itself out in the context of a global reform movement that has focused on improving student outcomes Leading and Managing Schools Helen O'Sullivan, John West-Burnham, 2011-04-19 Top

Science & Engineering Indicators, 2000      Improving Schools Using Systems Leadership Ian Macdonald, Clive Dixon, Tony Tiplady, 2019-06-26 It is easy to underestimate the impact that school organisation has on the behaviour effectiveness engagement and creativity of the teachers staff and students who work within it It also has a marked effect on the well being of staff members and how families and the community relate to the school Attempts to improve school organisation are often short term initiatives that only cover only one or two aspects of what it takes to organise a school effectively Improving Schools Using Systems Leadership in contrast provides those involved in the design and delivery of educational services with a coherent and easy to follow framework to help run an effective organisation Based on theory real data on education improvements at school and regional level and case studies this book demonstrates how Systems Leadership can be used to improve school organisation It integrates models of leadership teamwork capability structure and systems to help make them more effective in improving the learning outcomes of students and also sustain this improvement over time This book explains how Systems Leadership can and has been applied in schools to bring clarity to the purpose structure and systems within a school and have a major impact on its success As such it is an essential text for school leaders and managers looking for practical tools to help improve the working lives of the people within their organisation and hence their effectiveness      Closing the Achievement Gap from an International Perspective Julia V. Clark, 2013-10-24 In a changing world that demands new skills a vital concern of public education is the gap in academic performance between low and high achieving students There is no excuse for the achievement gaps that persist among poor and minority students in schools today All students can succeed at high levels regardless of race ethnicity and economic background Several countries have successfully confronted inequities in achievement demonstrating that any school can close achievement gaps regardless of the community they serve and that all students can achieve at high levels when they are provided with the right opportunities This book is about understanding what factors selected countries have applied to promote progress and what factors contribute to progress in the closing of achievement gaps It is about creating opportunities for all students Closing the Achievement Gap from an International Perspective Transforming STEM for Effective Education is written in response to rising concern for the improvement of quality education especially in mathematics and science provided to all students The contributors take a systematic view of the subject beginning with a cross national analysis of teacher qualifications and the achievement gap that spans 50 countries The content of the book is organized in sections describing education around the globe North and South America Europe Asia Africa and Australia Individual chapters offer close up analysis of efforts to close achievement gaps in the U S and Canada Mexico England Turkey China South Africa and Australia among many others The contributors provide information on the achievement gap in mathematics and science review current research and present strategies for fostering improvement and raising performance with a focus on school related variables that adversely affect educational outcomes among poor and minority students The authors of the various chapters looked at how students data correlated with classroom practices teacher instruction and academic programming as part of their efforts to measure student growth Qualitative and quantitative data are provided to provide evidence not only of the problem but also for the solution The book concludes with a chapter on promoting equality and equity to shrink the achievement gap worldwide

A Dictionary of Education Susan Wallace, 2015 Education is of relevance to everyone but it involves specialized terminology which may be unfamiliar or opaque The second edition of this UK focused dictionary with around 1 100 authoritative entries provides clear and accessible definitions of the terms organizations qualifications statutes and much more involved in education today

Teaching with Technologies Sarah Younie, Marilyn Leask, 2013-02-16 This book provides a baseline for effective technology practice offering a comprehensive overview of theory research and practice In particular the book Brings together research findings to provide an evidence based approach to using technology in the classroom Provides an understanding of how technologies can and should inform teaching and learning Highlights effective practice As well as capturing the extensive developments in this field over the last three decades the book identifies what works with technology and education There is detailed consideration of how technology can enhance learning and inform pedagogic approaches together with examples This not only informs but most importantly allows teachers to develop their practice in order to incorporate and exploit the affordances of educational technologies providing a sound theoretical underpinning to classroom practice with technologies Significantly the book urges educators to embrace new ways of working using technologies to support knowledge sharing and building It also looks ahead and reports teachers views of schools of the future where learners and teachers may work flexibly through a curriculum that is personalised and focused on 21st century needs

Teaching with Technologies is essential reading for busy teachers and students who wish to gain an informed overview of the key issues pertaining to technology and education This is a very timely book reminding us of the complex history of technology integration into teaching and learning in this country as well as giving an overview of current practice and providing a prescient look to the future Dr Chris Higgins formerly Principal Lecturer Oxford Brookes University UK The manner in which UK teachers and students have and are currently engaging with digital technologies across the curriculum and at all levels of schooling is clearly presented and together with links to research and classroom practice is a major strength of the book

Anthony Jones ICT in Education and Research The University of Melbourne Australia

Pathways to School System Improvement Michael Gaffney, 2014-11-01 Pathways to School System Improvement provides invaluable reading for educators who want access to effective strategies for implementing school system improvement The road to school system improvement can be a rocky one The nature of schools and school systems makes them very difficult to change These are complex organisations subject to a range of demands and opportunities from multiple stakeholders from parents and governments from local communities and business from other educational authorities and institutions and of course from their staff and students Effective educational leaders appreciate this complexity and work with colleagues and others across and beyond their education system to make a positive and meaningful difference Drawing on data from two national pilot programs Principals as Literacy Leaders PALL and Leading Aligned Numeracy Development LAND this title looks at effective strategies for implementing system improvement and presents approaches for capitalising on the successes and overcoming the shortcomings of initiative based reforms

Managing School Intellectual Capital for Strategic Development Eric C. K. Cheng, 2022-07-29 Cheng articulates the extent to which knowledge management approaches can create Intellectual Capital IC and contribute to improvements in education quality He argues that public schools have long contended with the requirements of quality assurance in a competitive environment of decreasing student numbers increasing parental choice and rising standards of accountability As public organisations schools have to demonstrate appropriate resource management and show evidence that they are meeting defined development plans and goals Cheng proposes a strategic approach IC management to help schools respond to and cope with the increasingly competitive environment while enhancing school capacity for improving student learning First the book guides readers to understand the development of IC theory in the context of education to address the requirements of quality assurance and accountability It then introduces Lesson Study e Learning and Information and Communication Technology ICT as key resources and drivers for building school IC and examines the organisational factors that enable knowledge management approaches for developing IC in schools from both Asia and Europe It concludes by offering strategies and implementation methods to manage school IC for sustainable development Combining research from Asia and Europe this edited volume will be useful for school leaders and policy makers as well as those researching school leadership and IC

Teacher Education and Pedagogy Michael Evans, 2013 Summary Initial teacher education continues to elicit strong views and contested prescriptions with judgements made increasingly on the basis of international comparisons Against this background of educational debate and polemic there is a need for insights gained from research based qualitative accounts of the processes and practice taking place in high performing institutions and contexts Teacher Education and Pedagogy combines critical discussion of transformative processes of teacher education policy and planning with fine grained analysis of effective practice Book cover

A Case for Radical Pragmatic Leaders and Personalised Learning Schools Andrew Bills, 2020-06-23 Thousands of young people from disadvantaged backgrounds are forsaking education in secondary mainstream schools across Australia This book places a sociological and lived experience phenomenological lens on public policy that is working against school inclusion learning engagement and post school opportunity The school case studies provided here highlight the damage done and the opportunity for refreshed policy approaches to address this malaise Across the educational landscape there are a number of fine examples of schools that are choosing to do schooling against the grain of unhelpful regulatory policy that works to exclude many from their educational entitlement These schools and their practices are examined in this book and are presented as examples for policy learning If education systems learn to embrace an ongoing culture of research and inquiry where the evidence based and contextual learning experiences of students teachers and Principals are equally valued and heard in the policy realm the phenomenon of early school leaving can begin to turn around This work calls upon Principals in the first instance to become more radical and pragmatic in their leadership of schools collectively working with courage to ensure that the experience of schooling is personalised to the learning needs and career aspirations of all young people
