My Hrw Key Codes:

The Key to My Neighbor's House Elizabeth Neuffer, 2025-06-25 Interviewing war criminals and their victims Neuffer explains through the voices of people she follows over the course of a decade how genocide erodes a nation's social and political environment Her characters stories and their competing notions of justice from searching for the bodies of loved ones to demanding war crime trials to seeking bloody revenge convinces readers that crimes against humanity cannot be resolved by simple talk of forgiveness or through the more common recourse to forgetfulness The Publishers Weekly, 1964

Evolving Iran Barbara Ann Rieffer-Flanagan, 2013-03-22 Evolving Iran presents an overview of how the politics and policy decisions in the Islamic Republic of Iran have developed since the 1979 revolution and how they are likely to evolve in the near future Despite the fact that the revolution ushered in a theocracy its political system has largely tended to prioritize self interest and pragmatism over theology and religious values while continuing to reinvent itself in the face of internal and international threats The author also examines the prospects for democratization in Iran Since the early years of the twentieth century Iranians have attempted to make their political system more democratic yet various attempts to produce a system where citizens have a meaningful voice in political decisions have failed This book argues that greater democratization is unlikely to occur in the short term especially in light of increased threats from the international community This accessible overview of Iran's political system covers a broad array of subjects including foreign policy human rights women's struggle for equality the development and evolution of elections and the institutions of the political system including the Revolutionary Guards and Assembly of Experts It will appeal to undergraduates and the general public who seek to understand a country and regime that has mystified Westerners for decades The Women, Peace and Security

Agenda Laura J. Shepherd, 2021-09-26 The Women Peace and Security WPS agenda is comprised of the policies protocols and practices enacted by a wide range of actors inspired by or under the auspices of the UN Security Council resolutions adopted under the title of women and peace and security Since the adoption of the first resolution in 2000 resolution 1325 there have been nine others each of which elaborates or extends aspects of the original resolution This book provides a forward looking collection of scholarship on the WPS agenda in two halves The first half of the book presents a series of essays that each provide a glimpse of the rich and insightful research on WPS being undertaken in and about different contexts to demonstrate the importance of centring the local as a site of knowledge production in the WPS agenda The essays presented in the second half of the book also engage questions of knowledge production documenting the exploratory methods in use in WPS scholarship and highlighting those topics engaged at the hinterlands of what is a broad field topics that gesture at the future of research in this area The chapters in this book were originally published as special issues of the International Feminist Journal of Politics The Gender Imperative Betty A. Reardon, Asha Hans, 2012-12-06 The book asserts that human security derives from the experience and expectation of human well being which depends on four essential conditions a life sustaining environment the meeting of essential physical needs respect for the identity and dignity of persons and groups protection from avoidable harm and expectations of remedy from them The book demonstrates their integral relationship to human security Patriarchy being the germinal paradigm from which most major human institutions such as the state the economy organised religions and social relations have evolved the book argues that fundamental inequalities must be challenged for the sake of equality and security The fundamental point raised is that expectation of human well being is a continuing cause of armed conflict which constitutes a threat to peace and survival of all humanity and human security cannot exist within a militarised security system The editors of the book bring together 14 essays which critically examine militarised security in order to find human security pathways show ways in which to refute the dominant paradigm indicate a clear gender analysis that challenges the current system and suggests alternatives to militarised security With a mix of female and male feminist scholar activists as contributors the book makes an important contribution to a new discourse on human security Catalog of Copyright Entries. European Studies in Asia Georg Wiessala, 2014-03-21 As countries across Asia continue to rise and become more assertive global powers the role that Higher Education has played and continues to play in this process is an issue of growing pertinence Furthermore understanding the relationship between Europe and Asia fostered by historical and contemporary knowledge transfer including Higher Education is crucial to analysing and encouraging the progress of both regional integration and inter regional cooperation With a specific focus on international Higher Education European Studies in Asia investigates knowledge transfer and channels of learning between Europe and Asia from historical contemporary and teaching perspectives The book examines a selection of significant historical precedents of intellectual dialogue between the two regions and in turn explores contemporary cross regional discourses both inside and outside of the official frameworks of the European Union EU and the Asia Europe Meetings ASEM Drawing on extensive case studies based on many of his own teaching experiences Georg Wiessala addresses key questions such as the nature and construction of the European Studies in Asia curriculum aspects of values co constructed learning and adult pedagogy in the discipline of European Studies in Asia the politics of Asian host cultures the internationalization of Asian Higher Education and the experiences and expectations of tertiary sector students of this subject in Asia Australia and New Zealand In doing so the author articulates a range of outcomes for the further development of Higher Education cooperation agendas between Asia and Europe in the discipline of European Studies and in related fields such as International Relations This case study led book makes an original and novel contribution to our understanding of European Studies in Asia As such it will be of great interest to students and scholars of Asian Education Comparative Education European Studies and International Relations Crisis and Politicisation Benedetta Voltolini, Michal Naturski, Colin Hay, 2021-05-18 This book elucidates the link between the politics of a now seemingly permanent crisis in Europe and the politicisation of European integration Looking at the epistemic dimension of crises it suggests that the way in which a crisis is framed and contested determines its potential impact on the level of politicisation of European integration Europe is more challenged and contested today than it has even been facing crisis of an almost existential kind Yet political crises are manufactured and narrated so Europe has the possibility to intervene and bring about her recovery instead of letting these crises prove terminal This book explores the political process in and through which certain events come to be framed as constitutive of a moment that requires a decisive intervention It shows that crises require a double framing a situation needs to be identified as one of crisis in the first place and subsequently the nature and character of the crisis need to be specified By examining a wide range of policy areas the book demonstrates that framing of crises i e identifying one situation both as a crisis and a crisis of a particular kind contributes to the politicisation or depoliticisation of the process of European integration The chapters in this book were originally published as special issue of Journal of European Integration Transmitting Rights Brian Greenhill, 2015 When considering the structures that drive the global diffusion of human rights norms Brian Greenhill argues that we need to look beyond institutions that are explicitly committed to human rights and instead focus on the dense web of international government organizations IGOs some big some small some focused on human rights some not that has arisen in the last two generations While most of these organizations have no direct connection to human rights issues their participation in broader IGO networks has important implications for the human rights practices of their member states Featuring a rigorous empirical analysis Transmitting Rights shows that countries tend to adopt similar human rights practices to those of their IGO partners whether for better or worse Greenhill argues that IGOs constitute a tightly woven fabric of ties between states and that this network provides an important channel through which states can influence the behavior of others Indeed his analysis suggests that a policy of isolating rogue states is probably self defeating given that this will reduce their exposure to some of the more positive IGO based influences on their human rights Greenhill s analysis of the role of IGOs in rights diffusion will not only increase our understanding of the international politics of human rights it will also reshape how we think about the role of international institutions in world politics Holt Science and Technology 2002 Holt Rinehart & Winston, Holt, Rinehart and Winston Staff, 2002 Chronicles of the Egyptian Revolution and its Aftermath: 2011-2016 M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2017 This book analyses Egypt s 2011 Revolution highlighting the struggle for freedom justice and human dignity in the face of economic and social problems and an on going military regime An Ed-Tech Tragedy? Mark West, 2025-10-10 The COVID 19 pandemic pushed education from schools to educational technologies at a pace and scale with no historical precedent For hundreds of millions of students formal learning became fully dependent on technology whether internet connected digital devices televisions or radios An Ed Tech Tragedy examines the numerous adverse and unintended consequences of the shift to ed tech It documents how technology first solutions left a global majority of learners behind and details the many ways education was diminished even when technology was available and worked as intended Using tragedy as a metaphor and borrowing the organization of a three act theatrical play the book shows how technology first modes of learning introduced novel health and safety risks handed significant control of public education to for profit companies expanded invasive digital surveillance and carried detrimental environmental repercussions in addition to adversely impacting educational access equity quality and outcomes in most contexts Dedicated sections consider alternative and less technology reliant educational responses to COVID 19 disruptions that had the potential to be more inclusive and equitable The analysis further explains how pandemic models of learning are rippling beyond school closures and influencing the future of education Holistically the work invites readers to reconsider a turbulent chapter in education history and reexamine the purposes and roles of technology in education
