Web 2.0 Tools in Concept Teaching Zeynep Tatlı, Ali Şükrü Özbay, 2021-11-30 Currently students are interested in more than one thing at the same time preferring to use visuals and infographics rather than writing in the learning process In addition these students use technology better in the education process as in all aspects of daily life as they meet technology at an earlier age than their teachers Therefore teachers should also update themselves according to these learner characteristics In particular assessment and evaluation are two of the topics that students may not enjoy to their fullest extent This book serves to make the assessment process fun and interactive as well as to inform teachers about the different applications they can do in this process It invites teachers to introduce highly interactive applications and make their classes active in the learning process

resources along the way including reflection activities to extend your thinking and a variety of helpful downloadable templates designed to facilitate the work If you re a teacher or leader who is interested in maximizing student achievement this book is for you Hard-to-teach Biology Concepts Susan Koba,Anne Tweed,2009 The book is not a prescribed set of lessons plans Rather it presents a framework for lesson planning shares appropriate approaches for developing student understanding and provides opportunities to reflect and apply those approaches to the five hard to teach topics
