Five Ways The Similarities And Differences Between Nsfas:

A Better Future Jacqueline Bhabha, Wenona Giles, Faraaz Mahomed, 2020-09-17 Policy makers advocates and scholars have long concentrated on the importance of equal access to primary and secondary education as a foundation for a democratic and just society Despite the growing importance of higher and specialist education in an increasingly technological and skill focused global market tertiary education has attracted much less attention And yet universities and colleges are epicentres of egregious disparities in access which impinge on traditionally marginalized communities such as racial minorities migrants indigenous populations and people with disabilities By drawing attention to this issue and assembling first rate material from scholars and policy makers across the globe this book performs an invaluable service for those interested in understanding and fighting a highly significant violation of educational opportunity and social justice

Quality and Inclusion in Education N.V. Varghese, Anjana Mangalagiri, A. Mathew, 2023-05-12 This book calls for an equitable and qualitative access to education for all It proposes paradigms of educational governance that are based on coalition building between key stakeholders are grounded in local and cultural contexts sensitive to the language needs of communities It underlines the significance of gender sensitive and inclusive approaches that ensure equity for marginalized children and minorities Based on research based studies the volume focuses on equity quality and learning covering a broad spectrum from school to higher to adult education It discusses the multiple learner deprivations amongst the marginalized communities and the severe impact of events such as pandemics that exacerbate learner inequities and the recent developments in India under the National Education Policy 2020 It also presents research based country experiences in the Asian India Bangladesh China and African Ghana South Africa contexts showing how external influences on the changing priorities in policy perspectives cut across developing countries Compiled in honour of Professor R Govinda this volume of insightful articles will be of interest to students and researchers of educational policy and studies sociology of education equity and human rights It will also be useful for decision makers and think tanks

Responsibility of Higher Education Systems, 2020-06-29 The evolving societal political and economic landscape has led to increased demands on higher education institutions to make their contribution and benefits to society more visible and in many cases with fewer public resources This book contributes to the understanding of the responsibilities of Higher Education and the challenges posed to the production and circulation of knowledge It raises questions about the role of higher education in society its responsibility towards students and staff and regarding its intended impact The book brings together a range of topical papers and a diversity of perspectives scientific investigations of reputed scholars critical evidence based papers of third space professionals and policymakers perspectives on the daily practice and management of higher education institutions and systems The variety of both content and contributors elevates the richness of the book and its relevance for a large audience Contributors are Victor M H Borden Lex Borghans Bruno Broucker Hamish Coates Gwilym Croucher Lisa Davidson Mark

Understanding Experiences of First Generation University Students Amani Bell, Lorri J. Santamaría, 2018-02-22 Over the past few decades universities have opened their doors to students whose parents and grandparents were historically excluded from societal participation and higher education for reasons associated with racial ethnic socio economic and or linguistic diversity Many of these students are first generation or first in their family to attend university While some progress has been made in responding to the needs of these internationally underserved learners many challenges remain This edited book features the unique and diverse experiences of first generation students as they transition into and engage with higher education whilst exploring ways in which universities might better serve these students With reference to culturally responsive and sustaining research methodologies undertaken in Australia Canada New Zealand South Africa the UK and the USA the contributors critically examine how these students demonstrate resilience within university and ways in which success and challenges are articulated Elements that are unique to context and shared across the international higher education milieu are explored The book is replete with diverse student voices and compelling implications for practice and future research The studies featured are centred on underlying theories of identity and intersectionality while valuing student voices and experiences Throughout the emphasis is on using strengths based indigenous and decolonised methodologies Through these culturally sustaining approaches which include critical incident technique participatory learning and action talanoa and narrative inquiry the book explores rich data on first generation student experiences at seven institutions in six countries across four continents

Transforming Transformation in Research and Teaching at South African Universities Rob Pattman, 2018-12-20 What is transformation in contemporary South African higher education How can it be facilitated through research and pedagogic practices These questions are addressed in this edited collection by established academics and emerging research students from nine South African universities The chapters give us access to students worlds how they construct experience and navigate their complex spheres on and off campus
