Lengyel

Illustrated Edition

A black and white photograph of the main entrance to the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp. The central feature is a tall, brick gatehouse with a dark, gabled roof and a small weather vane on top. The gatehouse has several windows, including a row of small, square windows near the roofline and two larger, multi-paned windows on the lower level. A large, arched opening in the center of the gatehouse provides a view into the camp's interior, where a train of cars is visible. The gatehouse is flanked by two long, low brick buildings with gabled roofs. In the foreground, a set of gravel train tracks runs straight towards the gatehouse, receding into the distance. The sky is overcast with soft, grey clouds.
