Housekeeping Marilynne Robinson, 2015-11-03 The story of Ruth and her younger sister Lucille who grow up haphazardly first under the care of their competent grandmother then of two comically bumbling great aunts and finally of Sylvie the eccentric and remote sister of their dead mother The family house is in the small town of Fingerbone on a glacial lake in the Far West the same lake where their grandfather died in a spectacular train wreck and their mother drove off a cliff to her death It is a town chastened by an outsized landscape and extravagant weather and chastened again by an awareness that the whole of human history had occurred elsewhere Ruth and Lucille's struggle toward adulthood beautifully illuminates the price of loss and survival and the dangerous and deep undertow of transience
