Impairment Maximus M. Sefotho, Ronél Ferreira, 2020-12-31 This book Teaching Learners with Visual Impairment focuses on holistic support to learners with visual impairment in and beyond the classroom and school context. Special attention is given to classroom practice, learning support, curriculum differentiation and assessment practices to mention but a few areas of focus covered in the book. In this manner, this book makes a significant contribution to the existing body of knowledge on the implementation of inclusive education policy with learners affected by visual impairment.

Getting Evidence into Education Stephen Gorard, 2020-03-31 Worldwide there has been considerable progress in the quality of research evidence generated for use in education but not the equivalent growth in knowledge of how best to get this evidence into actual use. Yet with far-reaching implications, all of education is damaged when persuasive but poor quality evidence has widespread influence or good research lies unused. Focused on the work of the Durham University Evidence Centre for Education, Getting Evidence into Education addresses this problem, examining what can be done to improve the take-up of suitable research evidence and inform the public service of education. Containing a variety of case studies from evidence-based policies for early childhood education in Brazil to the use of evidence on contextualized admissions to Scottish universities, the volume explores a variety of different ways to approach the problem, addressing the questions: What is the existing evidence on different approaches to getting research evidence into use? What are the factors which influence the uptake of high quality research evidence by policy or practice? Which are the most effective pathways for evidence into use in particular contexts? Considering both the practical and ethical implications, the book builds towards key recommendations for the research community, practitioner bodies and policy makers and advisors, directing them on how to communicate better with each other for the benefit of everyone.

Debates in Mathematics Education Gwen Ineson, Hilary Povey, 2020-06-15 This new and updated second edition of Debates in Mathematics Education explores the major issues that mathematics teachers encounter in their daily lives. By engaging with established and contemporary debates, this volume promotes and supports critical reflection and aims to stimulate both novice and experienced teachers to reach informed judgements and argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding. Divided into five accessible sections, this book investigates and offers fresh insight into topics of central importance in mathematics education, with this second edition including new discussions and chapters on Classic and contemporary issues of pedagogy, politics, philosophy and sociology of mathematics education. International comparisons of achievement, Digital technologies for teaching, Mastery in mathematics, Pop culture and mathematics, Whether mathematics can be harmful. Designed to stimulate discussion and support you in your own research, writing and practice through suggested questions and activities throughout, Debates in Mathematics Education will be a valuable resource for any student or practising teacher and those engaged in initial teacher education, continuing professional development or Master's level study. This book also has much to offer to those leading mathematics departments in schools and initial teacher education programmes and to beginning doctoral students looking for a survey of the field of
