Author Fictions Ingo Berensmeyer, 2023-10-04 Fictional novelists and other author characters have been a staple of novels and stories from the early nineteenth century onwards What is it that attracts authors to representing their own kind in fiction Author Fictions addresses this question from a theoretical and historical perspective Narrative representations of literary authorship not only reflect the aesthetic convictions and social conditions of their actual authors or their time they also take an active part in negotiating and shaping these conditions The book unfolds the history of such author fictions in European and North American texts since the early nineteenth century as a literary history of literary authorship ranging from the Victorian bildungsroman to contemporary autofiction It combines rhetorical and sociological approaches to answer the question how literature makes authors Identifying author fictions as narratives that address the fragile material conditions of literary creation in the actual and symbolic economies of production Ingo Berensmeyer explores how these texts elaborate and manipulate concepts and models of authorship This book will be relevant to English American and comparative literary studies and to anyone interested in the topic of literary authorship and institutions in higher education are caught in an arms race of reputation The result has been to skew priorities in scholarship erode commitments to teaching compromise efforts of public intellectuals and impede effectiveness in administration The book offers several solutions to counter these pervasive problems in our research institutions Rhode makes a case for increasing accountability and realigning reward systems She argues that what is needed is a greater sense of responsibility among universities and their faculties to narrow the gap between academic ideals and practices In Pursuit of Knowledge is meticulously researched and elegantly written It is also exceptionally entertaining in its use of quotations culled from over a hundred academic novels including works by Kingsley Amis Saul Bellow David Lodge and C P Snow For example from P G Wodehouse s The Girl in Blue The Agee woman told us for three quarters of an hour how she came to write her beastly book when a simple apology was all that was required The result is a highly readable but also deeply reflective analysis of the academic profession
