Women of India Publications Division, This book presents a picture of not only the past but the changing present in India of the Indian women to enlighten their minds and give correct information of what our women have done and are doing. Prairie Farmer, 1914. The Half Day She Spent with Them Bhawna Saini, 2018-12-26. Love is like fragrance. As much it grows, it becomes nurtured with feelings. Though invisible, it is still there; it does always remain there beside you within you even when it is difficult to believe in. And it surprises you to beautify the life in the most unexpected way and when you expect it the least. It happens with Anshita too. She has learnt to recognize herself as abandoned and discarded. All she has received from her destiny is misfortune and reprimands as she was thrown out of the life by her parents when she was only a few months old. And after some years of life, she had to let the one go who taught her how to love. This loss consequently scares her of accepting love in any form. Though she has lost the love of life, but it is not what her destiny has decided for her as once again love shows up in her life in the most unexpected way and when she expects it the least. With this love, she embarks on a journey to find out the base of her own existence and to get herself the original recognition. But the truth she comes to know shatters her down and once again shakes all the beliefs she ever had about the relations. Though the decision is difficult, still she has to decide whether to win or to let win.
