Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book's wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry Bases of the Preaching Marcos A. Toyens, 2019-11-23 The contemporary evangelical church faces serious difficulties All their leaders are aware of this and they try different diagnoses and answers for it It occurs to me that the current situation is similar to the tragic fate of Samson to whom the Spirit of God had left him and he did not realize it As solutions are sought in human and pragmatic techniques the patient aggravates their condition The only correct answer is that this vanishing life be breathed in as at the beginning of creation by the Word of God The spiritual life of the church and of ourselves depends on listening to and responding to the Word of God And for this to happen Scripture must take the central and authoritative position in the life of the church An American Muslim Guide to the Art and Life of Preaching Sohaib Sultan, 2023 This book explores the art and craft of delivering Islamic sermons while also providing a model of spiritual formation for those serving Muslim communities of faith in positions of religious leadership Special attention is paid to the American Muslim context in which these faith leaders regularly live operate and faithfully engage Ten Stupid Things That Keep Churches from Growing Geoff Surratt, 2009 Based on interviews with pastors of growing churches as well as personal experience this book identifies the most common mistakes pastors make that keep otherwise healthy churches from reaping the harvest God has prepared Each chapter spotlights a common mistake gives real life examples uses a generous dose of humor and provides a practical course of action to recover from the error The book draws from the experience of Seacoast Church as well as pastors such as Craig Groeschel Chris Hodges Perry Nobel Mark Batterson Dave Ferguson Scott Chapman Dino Rizzo Ron Hamilton and Dave Browning Church leaders will be encouraged to realize that they are not the only ones who struggle and that turning their situation around may not be as daunting a task as they think This is a field guide for the common pastor based on actual churches of all sizes Preaching God's Word, Second Edition Terry G. Carter, J. Scott Duvall, J.
