Robert Buist,2015-06-26 Excerpt from The Rose Manual Custom has made it the privilege of authors to set forth the merit and purport of their productions in some preliminary remarks Of this privilege I gladly avail myself to disclaim at once all pretensions to the art of composition These pages owe their existence merely to the repeated demands of numerous friends and customers for a work on Roses simple in its arrangement and clear in its directions I have endeavoured to gratify their wishes and have now only to hope that their satisfaction may bear some proportion to the pleasure I have found in the task This volume contains the result of twenty eight years experience on the subject of which it treats twenty three of which have been as a nurseryman cultivating the largest collection in the country I do not wish to be understood however as arrogating to myself any greater share of knowledge in rose culture than can be acquired by all practical men About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
