Research for Educational Change Jill Adler, Anna Sfard, 2016-06-17 Research for Educational Change presents ways in which educational research can fulfil its commitments to educational practice Focussing its discussion within the context of mathematics education it argues that while research generated insights can have beneficial effects on learning and teaching the question of how these effects are to be generated and sustained is far from evident The question of how to turn research into educational improvement is discussed here in the context of learning and teaching hindered by poverty and social injustice In the first part of the book four teams of researchers use different methodologies while analysing the same corpus of data collected in a South African mathematics classroom In the second part each of these teams makes a specific proposal about what can be done and how so that its research generated insights have a tangible beneficial impact on what is happening in mathematical classrooms Combining two discourses that of researchers speaking to one another and that of researchers communicating their insights to those responsible for educational practice the book deals with the perennial question of communication between those who study educational processes and those who are directly responsible for teacher education educational research and classroom practices This book will be key reading for postgraduates researchers and academics in education and particularly in the areas of mathematics education education research teacher education and classroom practice It will also appeal to teacher educators practitioners and undergraduate students interested in educational research Learning to teach in post-apartheid South Africa Yusuf Sayed, Nazir Carrim, Azeem

Struggling to Make the Grade: A Review of the Causes and Consequences of the Weak Outcomes of South Africa's Education System Mr.Montfort Mlachila,Tlhalefang Moeletsi,2019-03-01 While South Africa has made significant improvements in basic and tertiary education enrollment the country still suffers from significant challenges in the quality of educational achievement by almost any international metric The paper finds that money is clearly not the main issue since the South Africa s education budget is comparable to OECD countries as a percent of GDP and exceeds that of most peer sub

Saharan African countries in per capita terms The main explanatory factors are complex and multifaceted and are associated with insufficient subject knowledge of some teachers history race language geographic location and socio economic status Low educational achievement contributes to low productivity growth and high levels of poverty unemployment and inequality Drawing on the literature the paper sketches some policy considerations to guide the debate on what works and what does not not Leadership Approaches to Negotiate Challenges in a Changing Education Landscape Leentjie van Jaarsveld,Kobus Mentz,Charl C. Wolhuter,2020-12-31 The argumentative point of departure of this scholarly book is the common conviction of specialists in the field of education in South Africa that the national education system is not at a satisfactory level in both the academic and the public discourse Such allegations are made and frequently stronger adjectives than non satisfactory are used Results of international test series in which South Africa has participated such as the 2015 TIMSS tests confirm the negative verdicts found in the public and scholarly discourse This book aims to argue that although the lack of performance could be attributed to a multiplicity of factors one factor that can make a difference in the achievement levels obtained by learners in schools is leadership The book demonstrates that a particular problem of both the scholarly and the public discourse on education in South Africa is an overtone of defeatism or resignation blaming all ills in the education system and educational institutions on historical legacies and or contextual factors such as socio economic deprivation in the catchment areas of schools or poor resources and infrastructure This collected work was inspired by a recently published spate of articles on top performing schools including top performing schools in rural communities in which it was demonstrated that good leadership can overcome such contextual and other challenges The book unpacks the issue of leadership in South African schools from a variety of perspectives thus contributing to the development of the scholarly discourse on Educational Leadership in South Africa The target audience of the book is scholars of Educational Leadership The research reported in the chapters draw on a wide range of methodologies including empirical survey research questionnaires and interviews critical literature surveys and the comparative method Engineering ,1937 Education Policy Reform Trends in G20 Members Yan Wang,2014-01-17 G20 members bring together the world s major advanced and emerging economies as well as the European Union Together they represent some 90% of global GDP 80% of global trade and two thirds of the world s population In recognition of educational development as a key driver of economic development the G20 members have put education reform high on their policy agenda in order to meet the challenges and embrace the opportunities ahead Their experiences and lessons in education reform will not only showcase the global trend of education development but also will provide valuable reference and inspiration for undertaking education reform to advance national development in China as well as other countries This book documents recent policy reform in G20 members systems showcases the global trends in education policy serves as a valuable reference tool and also provide inspiration for undertaking education reform to advance development in related countries Becoming a teacher Josef de Beer,2020-12-31 This book disseminates original research on learning in and from practice in pre service teacher education Authors such as Lederman and Lederman describe the student teaching practicum or work integrated learning WIL which is an essential component of pre service teacher education as the elephant in the room These authors note that the capstone experience in any teacher education programme is the student teaching practicum after all this is where the rubber hits the road However many teacher educators will agree that this WIL component is sometimes very insufficient in assisting the student teacher to develop their own footing and voice as a teacher This is the gap that this research book addresses Most of the chapters in the book report empirical data with the exception of two chapters that can be categorized as systematic reviews WIL is addressed from various angles in the chapters Chapter 6 focuses on research related to what makes Finnish teacher education so effective and in Chapter 4 researchers of the University of Johannesburg disseminate their findings on establishing a teaching school based on Finnish insights in Johannesburg Chapter 3 highlights the challenges faced in open and distance learning teacher education contexts Several of the chapters disseminate research findings on alternative interventions to classic WIL namely where safe spaces or laboratories are created for student teachers to learn and grow professionally These could either be simulations such as software programmes and avatars in the intervention described in Chapter 2 student excursions as the findings in chapters 5 7 and 10 portray or alternative approaches to WIL e g Chapters 11 and 12 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education The target audience is scholars working in the fields of pre service teacher education work integrated learning and self directed learning The book makes a unique contribution in terms of firstly its extensive use of Cultural Historical Activity Theory as a research lens and secondly in drawing on various theoretical frameworks Both quantitative and qualitative research informed the findings of the book

Leading Change in Teacher Education Thuwayba Al Barwani, Maria Assunção Flores, David Imig, 2018-12-12 The international attempt to expand schooling despite dealing with an insufficient number of trained teachers has placed significant pressure on teacher education Continued effort to change all aspects of teacher education including ways of learning methods of practice institution interaction and assessment of teaching ability in order to fulfil the desire to offer inclusive and equitable teaching for all is a serious consideration In response to this increased attention on cross national campaigns Leading Change in Teacher Education features discussions covering what has been done how and why the change has happened the journey itself and the challenges encountered along the way alongside contributions from international academics who share their reflections and suggestions for a way forward despite a global shortage of teachers Strategies surrounding the design and delivery of education now centre on improving how teachers are prepared supported and evaluated Leading Change in Teacher Education captures the stories of international change leaders by Providing details of both the successes and challenges faced Presenting innovative practices in teacher education from around the world Describing the strategies put in place to ensure that teacher education is developing The topics discussed are relevant for educators policymakers and international organizations involved in the design and implementation of programmes in teacher education Leading Change in Teacher Education is also an invaluable resource for those looking to increase the changes occurring within teacher education

Contemporary South Africa and the Political Economy of Regional Development Methembe Mdlalose, Isaac Khambule, Nene Ernest Khalema, 2025-02-21 South Africa's struggle in balancing its domestic needs while playing a dynamic developmental role in the African region and global context exposes a complex web of relations shaped by its geostrategic location on the continent and the world and the staggering legacies of colonialism and apartheid As such understanding the complexities of the global economy and of South Africa's place in it is of great importance This book builds upon an existing body of literature which has demonstrated that while the post apartheid South African state has recast its nation building goals with advances having been made notably in the area of a stellar post apartheid constitution policy directives and democratic political integration economic integration and policy implementation presents a projection of captured interests where big business concerns are entrenched in the post apartheid state's apparent neo liberal turn The main focus of the book is to contextualise issues relating to three main trends in global discourses on development which are significant for South Africa and indeed for the study of the political economy of regional development in the country from the prism of South Africa as a global capitalist state These trends include the impact of globalisation regionalisation and the marginalisation of South Africa and indeed the African continent in the global economy thus unpacking the possible role that South Africa might play in regional development This volume will be a valuable resource to academics researchers and students in the fields of regional studies economics and political theory as well as policymakers planners and local economic development practitioners

Evidence-Based Inquiries in Ethno-STEM Research Iman C Chahine, Josef de Beer, 2021-01-01 The purpose of the edited volume is to provide an international lens to examine evidence based investigations in Ethno STEM research Ethno science Ethno technology Ethno engineering and Ethno mathematics These themes grew out of multi national multi institutional and multi disciplinary efforts to preserve as well as epitomize the role that Indigenous Knowledge Systems IKS play in cognitive development and its vital contributions to successful and meaningful learning in conventional and non conventional contexts Principled by the Embodied Situated and Distributed Cognition ESDC this innovative book will provide evidence supporting the embeddedness of a thinking in acting model as a fundamental framework that explains and supports students acquisition of scientific knowledge So often western science curricula are experienced as irrelevant since it does not take cognizance of the daily experiences and world in which the learner finds himself This book takes a socio cultural look at IKS and applies research in neuroscience to make a case its incorporation in the STEM Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics classroom We use the Embodied Situated Distributed Cognition ESDC Model as conceptual framework in this book Although the value of IKS is often acknowledged in curriculum policy documents teachers are most often not trained in incorporating IK in the classroom Teachers lack of the necessary pedagogical content knowledge PCK in effectively incorporating IK in their classrooms is a tremendous problem internationally Another problem is that IK is often perceived as pseudo science and scholars advocating for the incorporation of IK in the school curriculum often do not contextualize their arguments within a convincing theoretical and conceptual framework

Stopping the Spies Jane Duncan, 2018-06-01 Is South Africa on its way to becoming a surveillance state and will it need a whistleblower In 2013 former National Security Agency NSA contractor Edward Snowden leaked secret documents revealing that state agencies like the NSA had spied on the communications of millions of innocent citizens International outrage resulted but the Snowden documents revealed only the tip of the surveillance iceberg Apart from insisting on their rights to tap into communications more and more states are placing citizens under surveillance tracking their movements and transactions with public and private institutions The state is becoming like a one way mirror where it can see more of what its citizens do and say while citizens see less and less of what the state does owing to high levels of secrecy around surveillance In this book Jane Duncan assesses the relevance of Snowden s revelations for South Africa In doing so she questions the extent to which South Africa is becoming a surveillance society governed by a surveillance state Duncan challenges members of civil society to be concerned about and to act on the ever expanding surveillance capacities of the South African state Is surveillance used for the democratic purpose of making people safer or is it being used for the repressive purpose of social control especially of those considered to be politically threatening to ruling interests She explores the forms of collective action needed to ensure that unaccountable surveillance does not take place and examines what does and does not work when it comes to developing organised responses
