Sutherland,Great Britain. Department for Children, Schools and Families,2008 The Sutherland Inquiry HCP 62 session 2008 09 ISBN 9780102958393 is an independent inquiry remitted by the Office of the Qualifications and Examinations Regulator Ofqual and the Secretary of State for Children Schools and Families into the delivery of the National Curriculum tests in 2008 In July 2008 1 2 million pupils heard that their National Curriculum test results would be delayed The test delivery service represented a failure in customer delivery service to the pupils schools and also the markers upon whom the National Curriculum testing regime relies The primary responsibility must therefore rest with the American organisation ETS Global BV ETS which won the public contract to deliver the tests and failed its customers This report examines how this organisation secured the contract what its plans were and why its systems and process as a whole were not properly tested The report will also describe how ETS s systems failed during the test delivery process There was also a failure on the part of the Government s Non Departmental Public Body the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority to deliver its remit The report also sets out the procurement process that QCA used to select its delivery supplier ETS and how it managed the contract The report sets out a number of recommendations on how test delivery can improve in future years and has set out a number of key priorities including that the delivery process of the National Curriculum tests should be modernised and improved in consultation with the marking community including piloting online marking that whatever process is used should be thoroughly piloted and project managed to ensure schools and pupils get their results on time that the customer service provided to markers must be vastly improved to ensure that they are properly supported and are able to access up to date information International Perspectives On Educational Reform And Policy Implementation David S. Cater,Marnie O'Neill,2021-09-21 The change process is described in this text which examines the historical social and economic influences on education policy reform Chapters look at cross cultural experiences of educational change and policy implementation as the authors lead us to an understanding of processes and forces involved The three themes covered in this volume are politics and reform politics into policy and policy implementation and educational reform phenomena The authors argue that change takes a predictable format and once understood can be directed and managed This text is intended to be of interest to those involved in the planning and implementation of change and along with Volume 2 Case Studies in Educational Change point the way to effective management of such change processes Knowledge, Values and Educational Policy Harry Daniels,Hugh Lauder,Jill Porter,2012-07-26 Knowledge Values and Educational Policy focuses on what schools are for and what should be taught in them how learning is possible across boundaries and issues of diversity and equity Policies and practices relating to schools are also considered Within this volume internationally renowned contributors address a number of fundamental questions designed to take the reader to the heart of current debates around curriculum knowledge transfer equity and social justice and system reform such as What are schools and what are they for What knowledge should schools teach How are learners different from each other and how are groups of learners different from one another in terms of social class gender ethnicity and disability What influence does educational policy have on improving schools What influence does research have on our understanding of education and schooling To encourage reflection many of the chapters also include questions for debate and a guide to further reading Read alongside its companion volume Educational Theories Cultures and Learning readers will be encouraged to consider and think about on some of the key issues facing education and educationists today Supporting Children with Dyslexia Hull Learning Services,Hull City Council,2013-09-05 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Training to Teach in Primary Schools Jane Medwell,2015-03-19 Full of practical help and guidance this is a must have for primary trainees on school experience whether they are in a school based or university based teacher training programme It begins by helping trainees to plan their own journey through training and beyond Taking control of their own training in this way supports student teachers to approach the course with confidence and secure their first teaching job The book provides guidance on adapting to working in school observing planning and evaluating in school teaching on placement assessing monitoring and reporting on children s progress self evaluation and how to pre empt and resolve issues securing the first teaching job and succeeding in the NQT year For student teachers the experience of school based training is exciting but also challenging this book supports them throughout and prepares them for the journey ahead Student feedback on this book Having been on a variety of teaching placements myself I know just how daunting and overwhelming experiences in school can be at times even with a supportive mentor by your side Hence I felt that this book can smooth out and rectify those worries one may face during a school placement and offers the reader a realistic insight into school experiences In my opinion the most useful chapter by far is the Moving On chapter near the end of the book This explains how to conclude a school placement what to expect from an interview and even how to set out a CV for a teaching position This was not something I expected to find in this book however it was very much welcomed and is in fact a very important valuable part of the book This is the type of book you can buy on your very first day of teacher training and use well into your days as a newly qualified teacher Jasmin Primary Teacher
