African Biblical Studies Andrew M. Mbuvi, 2022-09-22 Andrew M Mbuvi makes the case for African biblical studies as a vibrant and important emerging distinct discipline while also using its postcolonial optic to critique biblical studies for its continued underlying racially and imperialistically motivated tendencies Mbuvi argues that the emergence of biblical studies as a discipline in the West coincides with and benefits from the establishment of the colonial project that included African colonization At the heart of the colonial project was the Bible not only as ferried by missionaries who often espoused racialized views to convert heathens in the distant lands but as the text used in the racialized justification of the colonial violence Interpretive approaches established within these racist and colonialist matrices continue to dominate the discipline perpetuating racialized interpretive methodology and frameworks On these grounds Mbuvi makes the case that the continued marginalization of non western approaches is a reflection of the continuing colonialist structure and presuppositions in the discipline of biblical studies African Biblical Studies not only exposes and critiques these persistent oppressive and subjugating tendencies but showcases how African postcolonial methodologies and studies that prioritize readings from the perspective of the marginalized and oppressed offer an alternative framework for the discipline These readings while destabilizing and undermining the predominantly white Euro American approaches and their ingrained prejudices and problematizing the biblical text itself posit the need for biblical interpretation that is anti colonial and anti racist

Twentieth-century Caribbean and Black African Writers Bernth Lindfors, Reinhard Sander, 1993 Profiles more than thirty Caribbean and Black African writers of the twentieth century presenting primary and secondary bibliographies and illustrated biographical essays that chronicle each writer's career in detail African Writers C. Brian Cox, 1997 Annotation The Scribner Writers Series has set the standard for literary reference for more than 25 years In addition to addressing the lives and careers of important writers the articles discuss the themes and styles of major works and place them in pertinent historical social and political contexts for today's readers Novelists playwrights essayists poets short story writers and more recently genre writers in science fiction and mystery are all expertly discussed in the more than 16 sets comprising this series Two volumes of original essays present 65 African writers from 17 countries writing in English French Portuguese Arabic and indigenous languages Subjects span the late 19th century to the present Included are Najib Mahfuz Andre Brink Wole Soyinka Nadine Gordimer Alan Paton and many more The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-10-03 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume's 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation. The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism. Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe, Nadine Gordimer, George Lamming, Jamaica Kincaid, V S Naipaul, Zoe Wicomb, J M Coetzee and many others.

Africa Writes Back James Currey, 2022-10-31. June 17, 2008 is the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart by Heinemann. This publication provided the impetus for the foundation of the African Writers Series in 1962 with Chinua Achebe as the editorial adviser. Africa Writes Back: The African Writers Series and the Launch of African Literature captures the energy of literary publishing in a new and undefined field. Portraits of the leading characters and the many consultants and readers providing reports and advice to new and established writers make Africa Writes Back a stand out book. James Currey's voice and insights are an added bonus.

Afrikaans Literature: Recollection, Redefinition, Restitution, 2023-12-14. Matatu is a journal on African literatures and societies dedicated to interdisciplinary dialogue between literary and cultural studies, historiography, the social sciences and cultural anthropology. Matatu is animated by a lively interest in African culture and literature including the Afro Caribbean that moves beyond worn out clichés of cultural authenticity and national liberation towards critical exploration of African modernities. The East African public transport vehicle from which Matatu takes its name is both a component and a symbol of these modernities based on Western, these days usually Japanese technology. It is a vigorously African institution, it is usually regarded with some anxiety by those travelling in it but is often enough the only means of transport available. It creates temporary communicative communities and provides a transient site for the exchange of news, storytelling and political debate. Matatu is firmly committed to supporting democratic change in Africa, to providing a forum for interchanges between African and European critical debates to overcoming notions of absolute cultural ethnic or religious alterity and to promoting transnational discussion on the future of African societies in a wider world Matatu will be published as journal as of 2016 All back volumes are still available in print      Zeitschrift Für Afrikastudien ,1989      Ngũgĩ Wa Thiong'o Charles Cantalupo,1995 In 1994 over 200 students from Universities world wide gathered in celebration of the work of Ngugi wa Thiong o The best papers and discussions are collected here      The Beautiful Ones are Not Yet Born Ayi Kwei Armah,1988 An unnamed hero resists the temptations of easy bribes and satisfactions only to be scorned for his honesty even by those he loves      Weep Not, Child Ngugi wa Thiong'o,Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o,1987 Two small boys stand on a rubbish heap and look into the future One boy is excited he is beginning school the other his brother is an apprentice carpetner Together they will serve their country the teacher and the craftsman But this is Kenya and times are against them In the forests the Mau Mau are waging war against the white government and two brothers Njoroge and Kamau and the rest of their family need to decide where their loyalties lie For the practical man the choice is simple but for Njoroge the scholar the dream of progress through learning is a hard one to give up P 4 of cover      ALA Bulletin ,2002      A Grain of Wheat Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o,1986 In this ambitious and densely worked novel we begin to see early signs of Ngugi s increasing bitterness about the ways in which the politicians are the true benefactors of the rewards of independence      African Publishing Review ,1994
