

The background of the book cover is a detailed space-filling molecular model. It features a central chain of green spheres (likely carbon) connected by bonds, with various white (hydrogen) and light blue (oxygen) spheres branching off. The model is rendered with soft shadows and highlights, giving it a three-dimensional appearance. Two semi-transparent teal rectangular boxes are overlaid on the cover: one at the top center containing the authors' names, and one at the bottom center containing the edition information and a disclaimer.
