which recognize a girl's transition to young womanhood at age fifteen are practiced in Latinx communities throughout the Americas. But in the consumer-driven United States the ritual has evolved from a largely religious ceremony to an elaborate party where social status takes center stage. Examining the many facets of this contemporary debut experience, Quincea era Style reports on ethnographic fieldwork in California, Texas, the Midwest, and Mexico City to reveal a complex, compelling story. Along the way we meet a self-identified transwoman who uses the quincea era as an intellectual space in her activist performance art. We explore the economic empowerment of women who own barrio boutiques specializing in the quincea era's many accessories and made-in-China gowns. And of course we meet teens themselves, including a vlogger whose quincea planning tips have made her an online sensation. Disrupting assumptions such as the belief that Latino communities in the United States can't desire upward mobility without abandoning ethnoracial cultural legacies, Quincea era Style also underscores the performative nature of class and the process of constructing a self in the public digital sphere. Science Fusion in Contemporary Mexican Literature Brian T. Chandler, 2024-03-29 Science Fusion draws on new materialist theory to analyze the relationship between science and literature in contemporary works of fiction, poetry, and theater from Mexico. In this deft new study, Brian Chandler examines how a range of contemporary Mexican writers fuse science and literature in their work to rethink what it means to be human in an age of climate change, mass extinctions, interpersonal violence, femicide, and social injustice. The authors under consideration here, including Alberto Blanco, Jorge Volpi, Ignacio Padilla, Sabina Berman, Maricela Guerrero, and Elisa D'az Castelo, challenge traditional divisions that separate human from nonhuman, subject from object, culture from nature. Using science and literature to engage topics in biopolitics, historiography, metaphysics, ethics, and ecological crisis in the age of the Anthropocene, works of science fusion offer fresh perspectives to address present-day sociocultural and environmental issues. Unsettling Colonialism N. Michelle Murray, Akiko Tsuchiya, 2019-09-24 Unsettling Colonialism illuminates the interplay of race and gender in a range of fin de siècle Spanish narratives of empire and colonialism, including literary fictions, travel narratives, political treatises, medical discourse, and the visual arts across the global Hispanic world. By focusing on texts by and about women and foregrounding Spain's pivotal role in the colonization of the Americas, Africa, and Asia, this book not only breaks new ground in Iberian literary and cultural studies but also significantly broadens the scope of recent debates in postcolonial feminist theory to account for the Spanish empire and its former colonies. Organized into three sections—colonialism and women's migrations, race, performance, and colonial ideologies, and gender and colonialism in literary and political debates, Unsettling Colonialism brings together the work of nine scholars. Given its interdisciplinary approach and accessible style, the book will appeal to both specialists in nineteenth-century Iberian and Latin American studies and a broader audience of scholars in gender, cultural, transatlantic, transpacific, postcolonial, and empire studies. Autotheories Alex Brostoff, Vilashini Cooppan, 2025-02-18 A transdisciplinary array of authors offering a new frame of reference for autotheory and its genre-bending synthesis of autobiography and critical theory, Autotheories tells the story of a field in formation Building on traditions that have long fused life writing philosophical encounter embodied theorizing and cultural critique autotheory constructs new practices of critical theory Transgressing generic boundaries and bridging stylistic registers it crafts language that is intimate analytic playful and insurgent Editors Alex Brostoff and Vilashini Cooppan underscore autotheory s multiple genealogies and genre bending forms while situating it within the contemporary political field In this collection autotheory emerges as a strut of style a straddle of disciplines a proliferation of selves an axis of identifications an index of attachments and an archive of loves An assemblage and an experience Autotheories surveys the field s iterations and permutations Without settling for classification or bowing to ossification Autotheories invites you to its discursive play Contributors include Alex Brostoff Jessica Bush Judith Butler Vilashini Cooppan Carla Freccero rl Goldberg Jan Grue Emma Lieber Megan Moodie Lili Owen Rowlands John Patterson Paul B Preciado Erica Richardson Miguelzinta C Sol s Jamieson Webster Damon Ross Young Stacey Young Arianne Zwartjes

The Crucified Mind Robert Havard,2001 Why is the Spanish input to Surrealism so distinctive and strong What do such renowned figures as Dal Bu uel Lorca Aleixandre and Alberti have in common This book untangles the issue of Surrealism in Spain by focusing on a consistent feature in Spanish avant garde poetry art and film of the late twenties and thirties its supersaturation in religion A repressive religious upbringing typically under the Jesuits intensifies both the paranoiac and the mystical Surrealism s twin pillars which were already deeply ingrained in the Spanish psyche Striking examples are Lorca s prophetic voice in New York Dal and Bu uel s Eucharistic transformations Alberti s Loyolan materio mysticism Alberti is the fulcrum of this study since his poetry goes the full distance of Surrealism s evolution from Freudian catharsis to metaphysical transcendence until it expires in a Marxist reaction to church bound tradition when his nation convulses in civil war the surrealist ethos in Spain is not reducible to measuring how closely it imitates French theory It is more serious than the French says Alberti and its bearings are found on a cross of mental suffering and in a journey out of hell that made real art in practice ROBERT HAVARD is Professor of Spanish University of Wales Aberystwyth

Dangerous Families Matt Bernstein Sycamore,2012-11-12 Queer survivors piece together the clues to discover their own lives Dangerous Families Queer Writing on Surviving goes beyond the recovery narrative to create a new queer literature of investigation exploration and transformation Twenty six stories illuminate the reality of growing up in fear struggling to rebuild lives damaged by sexual physical and or emotional abuse The book explores how abuse turns queer survivors male female and transgendered into healers heartbreakers and homicidal maniacs presenting brilliant stories that sear and soar Dangerous Families Queer Writing on Surviving addresses all forms of abuse head on representing a cross section of queer survivors in terms of race class ethnicity education origin sexuality and gender Contributors use their own life experiences to create a book that takes back control from well meaning outsiders as they recount the daily struggle to overcome the damage done to their minds bodies and spirits in a world that denies their gender sexual and social identities From the editor Dangerous Families consists entirely of writing by survivors of childhood abuse

That's right, no therapists analyzing our plight, no talk show hosts exploiting us, just survivors exploring our complicated, frightening and fulfilling lives. These stories dispense with the usual technique of carefully massaging the reader's fragile worldview before plunging this unsuspecting innocent into a world of horror. They go right to the horror, the beauty and the joy, often throwing the reader off guard, revealing layers of meaning before the reader can step back. Dangerous Families: Queer Writing on Surviving is an anthology of 26 true stories of growing up queer in families that magnify the horrors of the outside world instead of offering protection. The book is an essential read for therapists, caseworkers, cultural studies specialists and anyone struggling to survive childhood abuse. El Gato Negro escaping thirteen deaths Vols I to IV Marcelo Mendoza, j.liberkowski ph.d. Robert L. Barnes, 2016-12-19 Juan Castro at the age of seven loses his entire family. The Cobra gang of Escuintla raises him up to be a top assassin and drug dealer. Over the course of three decades he escapes death 13 times. Eventually his activities in the gang life become so severe that El Gato Negro is forced to hide in America. Even his education with the wizard and a myriad of jefes cannot protect him from the inevitable. El Gato Negro escaping thirteen deaths Volume III Deep in the gang life: death to resurrection Marcelo Mendoza, j.liberkowski ph.d. Robert L. Barnes, 2017-01-05 Unlike so many fictional books about gangs, El Gato takes us into the heart of the South American underworld. Trafficking, rivalries and betrayal become the norm in his biography. From his deep involvement in a number of Guatemalan mobs, our cat details his participation in violence, death and jealousy within the midst of love, humor, childlike innocence and the desire for being needed. Eventually, after being a gang member for twenty-one years, Juan Castro experiences an incredible epiphany when coming face to face with death for the thirteenth time. After Stories Irina Carlota Silber, 2022-08-23 This book builds upon Irina Carlota Lotti Silber's nearly 25 years of ethnographic research centered in Chalatenango, El Salvador, to follow the trajectories, geographic, temporal, storied of several extended Salvadoran families. Traveling back and forth in time and across borders, Silber narrates the everyday unfolding of diasporic lives rich with acts of labor, love and renewed calls for memory, truth and accountability in El Salvador's long postwar. Through a retrospective and intimate ethnographic method that examines archives of memories and troubles the categories that have come to stand for El Salvador, such as alarming violent numbers, Silber considers the lives of young Salvadorans who were brought up in an everyday radical politics and then migrated to the United States after more than a decade of peace and democracy. She reflects on this generation of migrants, the 1950 insurgent generation, born to forgotten former rank and file militants as well as their intergenerational transnational families to unpack the assumptions and typical ways of knowing in postwar ethnography. As the 1950 generation sustains their radical political project across borders, circulates the products of their migrant labor through remittances and engages in collective social care for the debilitated bodies of their loved ones, they transform and depart from expectations of the wounded postwar that offer us hope for the making of more just global futures. Reading and Writing the Ambiente Susana Chávez-Silverman, Librada Hernández, 2000 In this dynamic collection of essays many leading literary scholars trace gay and lesbian themes in Latin American Hispanic and U S Latino literary and cultural texts Reading and Writing the Ambiente is consciously ambitious and far ranging historically as well as geographically It includes discussions of texts from as early as the seventeenth century to writings of the late twentieth century Reading and Writing the Ambiente also underscores the ways in which lesbian and gay self representation in Hispanic texts differs from representations in Anglo American texts The contributors demonstrate that unlike the emphasis on the individual in Anglo American sexual identity Latino Spanish and Latin American sexual identity is produced in the surrounding culture and community in the ambiente As one of the first collections of its kind Reading and Writing the Ambiente is expressive of the next wave of gay Hispanic and Latin scholarship
