Focus On: 100 Most Popular 20Th-century American Politicians Wikipedia contributors, Caribbean and Latinx Street Art in Miami Jana Evans Braziel,2024-02-29 This study focuses on street art and large scale murals in metropolitan Miami Dade County while also foregrounding the diasporic and aesthetic interventions made by migrant and second generation artists whose families hail from the Caribbean and Latin America Jana

Evans Brazier argues that Caribbean and Latinx street artists define and visually mark the city of Miami as a diasporic transnational urban space. These artists also help define Miami as a cosmopolitan city yet one that is also a distinctly Caribbean and Latinx urban space and simultaneously resist but also at times reluctantly participate in the forces of gentrification and urban redevelopment particularly through the myriad and complex ways in which street art contributes to city branding and art tourism. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, urban studies, American studies, and Latin American Caribbean studies. Preventing the School-to-Prison Pipeline Charles Bartholomew, 2023-03-21

Preventing the School to Prison Pipeline is the first book written to provide school psychologists and other K-12 mental health professionals with knowledge and strategies intended to help them disrupt the criminalization of historically oppressed learners in today's classrooms. A phenomenon of the United States intersecting education and criminal justice systems, the school to prison pipeline is the process by which school staff punish already marginalized or at-risk students, primarily Black youth, in ways that enable a lifetime of targeting by police, court, and carceral operations. Exploring the unmet needs of students with mental, emotional, and behavioral health disorders, the effects of implicit and explicit bias, adverse school and court policies, and other biopsychosocial factors, this powerful book offers a preventative public health approach to providing clinical care to vulnerable students without compromising school safety. School psychologists, counselors, and social workers will come away with urgent and actionable insights into advocacy, collaboration, preventive interventions, alternative discipline measures in schools, and more. Academic Socialization of Young Black and Latino Children Susan Sonnenschein, Brook E. Sawyer, 2018-12-11 This book offers a strengths-based, family-focused approach to improving the educational performance and school experience of struggling Black and Latino students. The book discusses educational challenges faced by low-income families of color and the different strengths within Black and Latino family life that can affect these challenges. It focuses on building on these strengths within the children's home environments that can serve as a foundation for subsequent learning. The chapters describe a wide range of family practices and beliefs, including development of interventions to support families that promote early language and literacy, early mathematics, and social skills. The chapters also present quantitative and/or qualitative studies using a strengths-based approach to parents' socialization of their children's early academic skills. Topics featured in this book include Latino and Black parental resources, investments, and beliefs; academic socialization in the homes of Black and Latino preschool children; development of culturally informed interventions to promote children's school readiness skills; family-school partnerships as a tool for improving educational opportunities; directions for future research. Academic Socialization of Young Black and Latino Children is a must-have resource for researchers, educators, clinicians, and related professionals and graduate students in diverse fields including education, developmental and school psychology, family studies, counseling psychology, and social work, and sociology of culture. The Achiever Steven Boyer, 2023-10-13 The Achiever: The Story of Mayor Norman S. Edelcup and the City of Sunny Isles Beach chronicles the life and contributions of a small Florida beach town's longest serving and most impactful mayor. A former Chicago native who moved to Sunny Isles Beach in 1968, Norman S. Edelcup witnessed a slow decline for decades as tourists moved on to greener pastures. With a lifetime of knowledge and experience as a successful accountant, businessman, banker, and philanthropist, Norman became determined to turn his adopted hometown into a grand coastal city. One of Sunny Isles Beach's founding fathers, he served first as a city commissioner and then as the city's second mayor, ushering in spectacular citywide transformations. A meticulously researched biography and historical record, The Achiever is an inspiring testament to the visionary power of genuine civic leadership.

Supporting Children's Well-Being During Early Childhood Transition to School Tatalović Vorkapić, Sanja, LoCasale-Crouch, Jennifer, 2020-10-23. Life transitions differ concerning the intensity of the change and the intensity of the child's reaction to that change. For most children, the first and most significant transition is from the family home to an institution of early care and education, which includes preschool. These transitions can also include children's passage from kindergarten to elementary school. However, the intensity of the child's reaction is related to the size of the change that is happening and also to who or what is involved in that change and the importance a child attributes to that someone or something. Supporting Children's Well-Being During Early Childhood Transition to School is an essential scholarly publication that examines evidence-based practices and approaches that fully support a child's well-being during transition periods in early childhood. It serves as a resource to rethink contemporary transition theoretical models, research studies, and applied practices. Featuring a wide range of topics such as emotional competency, language learners, and professional development, this book is ideal for academicians, psychologists, early childhood educators, daycare centers, curriculum designers, policymakers, researchers, education professionals, and students.
