

Journal Assignment

As you read Of Mice and Men, by John Steinbeck, you will be asked to complete journal entries. This assignment is designed to encourage active reading habits, requiring you to pause and reflect as you read. Because this is a journal assignment, less emphasis is placed on whether your responses are "right" or "wrong," and more emphasis on how much you authentically engage with the text. We will use many of your responses as "jumping off" points for class discussions. Each entry

Directions: For each chapter you read, you will need to write 2 journal entries. Each entry should be 1-2 paragraphs in length. Be sure to reference page numbers and quotes!

Chapter 1:

- Who are George and Lennie? What are the strengths and weaknesses of their relationship? Finally, why does George stay with Lennie even though he complains about it?
- Before Lennie and George get to the ranch to work, what is the dream? How does the dream evolve over the course of the novel and why is it repeated over and over again?

Chapter 2:

- Comment on Steinbeck's description of "place" in the novel, referring to particular words, phrases, or passages. These descriptions can involve the natural world or the environment on the Tyler Ranch itself.
- Comment on your reaction to the story itself. How do you respond to the action? Position yourself within the text. Write about how you fit into the story. Can you relate to some of the struggles?

Chapter 3:

- What purpose do dreams serve? Are they necessary for all of us? Finally, can a dream be destructive? Explain.
- How does Steinbeck's belief in "the group" take shape in this novel? Also, how does this belief fit particularly well with the time period described in this work? Explain.
