My New Classroom Essay:

The New Classroom Instruction That Works Bryan Goodwin, Kristin Rouleau, Cheryl Abela, Karen Baptiste, Tonia Gibson, Michele Kimball, 2022-11-30 The book that inspired millions of educators to refine their approach to teaching returns for an all new third edition Built on a more rigorous research base and updated to emphasize student diversity equity and inclusion The New Classroom Instruction That Works offers a streamlined focus on the 14 instructional strategies proven to promote deep meaningful and lasting learning Cognitive interest cues Student goal setting and monitoring Vocabulary instruction Strategy instruction and modeling Visualizations and concrete examples High level questions and student explanations Guided initial application with formative feedback Peer assisted consolidation of learning Retrieval practice Spaced and mixed independent practice Targeted support Cognitive writing Guided investigations Structured problem solving These strategies all of which are effective and complementary are presented within a framework geared toward instructional planning and aligned with how the brain learns For each strategy you ll get the key research findings the important principles of classroom practice and recommended approaches for using the strategy with today s learners Both new and veteran teachers will finish this book with a better understanding of how effective teaching boosts student achievement and a clearer idea of what to do when to do it and why My 1980s & Other Essays Wayne

Koestenbaum, 2024-05-01 Wayne Koestenbaum returns with a zesty and hyper literate collection of personal and critical essays on the 1980s including essays on major cultural figures such as Andy Warhol and Brigitte Bardot Wayne Koestenbaum has been described as an impossible lovechild from a late night drunken three way between Joan Didion Roland Barthes and Susan Sontag Bidoun In My 1980s and Other Essays a collection of extravagant range and style he rises to the challenge of that improbable description My 1980s and Other Essays opens with a series of manifestos or perhaps more appropriately a series of impassioned disclosures intellectual and personal It then proceeds to wrestle with a series of major cultural figures the author s own lodestars and lodestones literary John Ashbery Roberto Bola o James Schuyler artistic Diane Arbus Cindy Sherman Andy Warhol and simply iconic Brigitte Bardot Cary Grant Lana Turner And then there is the personal the voice the style the flair that is unquestionably Koestenbaum It amounts to a kind of intellectual autobiography that culminates in a string of passionate calls to creativity arguments in favor of detail and nuance and attention a defense of pleasure hunger and desire in culture and experience Koestenbaum is perched on the cusp of being a true public intellectual his venues are more mainstream than academic his style is eye catching his prose unfailingly witty and passionate his interests profoundly wide ranging and popular My 1980s should be the book that pushes Koestenbaum off that cusp and truly into the public eye

A New Writing Classroom Patrick Sullivan, 2014-11-15 In A New Writing Classroom Patrick Sullivan provides a new generation of teachers a means and a rationale to reconceive their approach to teaching writing calling into question the discipline s dependence on argument Including secondary writing teachers within his purview Sullivan advocates a more diverse exploratory and flexible approach to writing activities in grades six through thirteen A New Writing Classroom encourages teachers to pay more attention to research in learning theory transfer of learning international models for nurturing excellence in the classroom and recent work in listening to teach students the sort of dialogic stance that leads to higher order thinking and more sophisticated communication The conventional argumentative essay is often a simplistic form of argument widely believed to be the most appropriate type of writing in English classes but other kinds of writing may be more valuable to students and offer more important kinds of cognitive challenges Focusing on listening and dispositions or habits of mind as central elements of this new composition pedagogy A New Writing Classroom draws not just on composition studies but also on cognitive psychology philosophy learning theory literature and history making an exciting and significant contribution to the field

Listening to Silences : New Essays in Feminist Criticism Elaine Hedges Professor of English and Director of Women's Studies Towson State University, Austin Shelley Fisher Fishkin Professor of American Studies and English University of Texas, 1994-09-22

Inside/Outside Marilyn Cochran-Smith, Susan L. Lytle, 1993

The central concern of Inside Outside is the assumption that pedagogical knowledge is generated outside in that is from the university to be applied at schools The first half provides a thoughtful conceptual framework for reading and understanding teacher research exploring its history potential and relationship to university based research In the second half the voices of teacher researchers contrast engage and combine as contributors explore the meaning and significance of their approaches and findings These authors enter into the national conversation about school reform teacher professionalism multicultural curriculum and pedagogy and language and literacy education
