This complete collection includes six novels and two short stories showcasing the intricacies of rivalry and friendship between the formidable characters of Mapp and Lucia. Benson's style is marked by sharp wit and keen observation, employing a rich comedic narrative that immerses readers in the peculiar yet endearing eccentricities of provincial life in the fictional town of Tilling. As he draws the reader into the characters' delectable schemes and social maneuverings, the emphasis on social class and the absurdities of human behavior takes on a timeless quality resonating with contemporary audiences. E F Benson, a prolific writer of the early 1900s, is well known for his acute societal insights and mastery of humor.
