Faith Jewish Perspectives Jewish Philosophy And Kabbalah:

Faith Abraham Sagi, Dov Schwartz, 2013 Faith Jewish Perspectives explores important questions in both modern and premodern Jewish philosophy regarding the idea of faith Is believing a voluntary action or do believers find themselves within the experience of faith against their will Can faith be understood through other means psychological epistemic and so forth or is it only comprehensible from the inside that is from within the religious world Is a subjective experience of faith fundamentally communicative meaning that it includes intelligible and transmittable universal elements or is it a private experience that we can point to or talk about through indirect means poetic lyrical and so forth but never fully decipher This book presents various manifestations of the concept of faith in Judaism as a tradition engaged in a dialogue with the outside world It will function as an opening and an invitation to an ongoing conversation with faith Faith Dov Schwartz, Avi Sagi, 2014
