sets the interplay of unresolved contradictions in this particular metropolitan area. The novelists studied here stem from multiple areas including the U S Southwest, Guatemala, and Chile. The study also incorporates non Latino writers who have contributed to the Latino culture of the city. The first chapter examines Latino cultural production from an ecocritical perspective on urban interethnic relations. Chapter 2 concentrates on the representation of daily life in the barrio and the marginalization of Latino urban youth. The third chapter explores the space of women and how female characters expand their area of operations from the domestic space to the public space of both the barrio and the city. A much needed contribution to the fields of urban theory, race critical theory, Chicana o Latina o studies, and Los Angeles writing and film. Lopez Calvo offers multiple theoretical perspectives including urban theory, ecocriticism, ethnic studies, gender studies, and cultural studies contextualized with notions of transnationalism and post nationalism.
