

Hopes And Dreams!

Dear Families:

This week we will be talking about our hopes and dreams for our year in kindergarten. We will read a book about a boy and his big plans and then we will share our big plans! Mr. Greg has BIG PLANS for our class this year and I can't wait to hear what big plans our students have! And now you have some homework!

I would like for you to share your hopes and dreams for your child for this year. What do you want them to learn? What do you want them to accomplish? What are your goals for your child?

Please write your hopes and dreams for your child on the back of this paper and return it to me by Friday! I will be using your child's hopes and dreams along with your hopes and dreams to create a puzzle display that will remind us of what we're working for! The puzzle reminds us that we are all working together for success!

Thank you for taking time to help your child reach their goals!

Child's Name

THANK YOU!

Equity in School-Parent Partnerships Socorro G. Herrera, Lisa Porter, Katherine Barko-Alva, 2020 The contents of this book are extremely timely as more US public schools are moving to push in programs for their English Learners ELs or following the increasing trend to launch DL programs as a way to offer instruction support for ELs In this book the authors use culturally and linguistically diverse CLD families as an umbrella term to discuss ESL and DL families This book is intended to reach ESL teachers content area teachers teaching ELs dual language teachers administrators and school personnel who work and support CLD parents Despite the varied instructional approaches to addressing ELs needs limited scholarship exists on the marginalization of CLD parents as leaders in the decision making processes of today s schools This book examines the divisive practices of existing parental involvement models that prevent parental engagement in ESL and DL contexts the importance of addressing parental engagement amidst current political discourse surrounding immigration that further alienates EL parents and the need for more proactive action based models that identify contributions of parents and community partners By re defining parental engagement as a mutually inclusive theoretical perspective school community and home become conduits for transforming student learning and improving school climate
