Husserl's Ideen 66 Contributions To Phenomenology:

Husserl's Ideen Lester Embree, Thomas Nenon, 2012-11-05 This collection of more than two dozen essays by philosophy scholars of international repute traces the profound impact exerted by Husserl's Meisterwerk known in its shortened title as Ideen whose first book was released in 1913. Published to coincide with the centenary of its original appearance and fifty years after the second book went to print in 1952 the contributors offer a comprehensive array of perspectives on the ways in which Husserl's concept of phenomenology influenced leading figures and movements of the last century including among others Ortega y Gasset, Edith Stein, Martin Heidegger, Aron Gurwitsch, Ludwig Landgrebe, Dorion Cairns, Simone de Beauvoir, Jean Paul Sartre, Maurice Merleau-Ponty, Jacques Derrida and Giles Deleuze. In addition to its documentation and analysis of the historical reception of these works this volume also illustrates the ongoing relevance of the Ideen offering scholarly discussion of the issues raised by his ideas as well as by the figures who took part in critical phenomenological dialogue with them. Among the topics discussed are autism, empathy, the nature of the emotions, the method and practice of phenomenology, the foundations of ethics, naturalism, intentionality and human rights to name but a few. Taken together these specially commissioned original essays offer an unrivaled overview of the reception of Husserl's Ideen and the expanding phenomenological enterprise it initiated. They show that the critical discussion of issues by phenomenologists continues to be relevant for the 21st century.

The Husserlian Mind Hanne Jacobs, 2021-07-20 Edmund Husserl 1859-1938 is widely regarded as the principal founder of phenomenology, one of the most important movements in twentieth century philosophy. His work inspired subsequent figures such as Martin Heidegger, his most renowned pupil as well as Jean Paul Sartre and Maurice Merleau-Ponty, all of whom engaged with and developed his insights in significant ways. His work on fundamental problems such as intentionality, consciousness and subjectivity continues to animate philosophical research and argument. The Husserlian Mind is an outstanding reference source to the full range of Husserl's philosophy. Forty chapters by a team of international contributors are divided into seven clear parts covering the following areas: major works, phenomenological method, phenomenology of consciousness, epistemology, ethics and social and political philosophy, philosophy of science, metaphysics. Contained in these sections are chapters on many of the key aspects of Husserl's thought including intentionality, transcendental philosophy, reduction, perception, time, self and subjectivity, personhood, logic, psychology, ontology and idealism. Offering an unparalleled guide to the enormous range of his thought, The Husserlian Mind is essential reading for students and scholars of Husserl, phenomenology and the history of twentieth century philosophy. It will also be of interest to those in related fields in the humanities, social sciences and psychology and the cognitive sciences.

Eco-Phenomenology Charles S. Brown, Ted Toadvine, 2012-02-01 This groundbreaking collection explores the intersection of phenomenology with environmental philosophy. It examines the relevance of Husserl, Heidegger, Merleau-Ponty and Levinas for thinking through the philosophical dilemmas raised by environmental issues and then proposes new phenomenological approaches to the natural world The contributors demonstrate phenomenology's need to engage in an ecological self evaluation and to root out anthropomorphic assumptions embedded in its own methodology Calling for a reexamination of beliefs central to the Western philosophical tradition this book shifts previously marginalized environmental concerns to the forefront and blazes a trail for a new collaboration between phenomenologists and ecologically minded theorists

Teaching Women Philosophers Ruth Edith Hagengruber, 2024-08-30 This book expands the known canon by presenting arguments and concepts from women philosophers from all periods of the history of philosophy from antiquity to the present day The collaborative collection is an undertaking that emerged from intensive discussions on how to expand the philosophical canon which formed the conclusion of the Libori Summer School 2019 This Libori Summer School the third in a row was held to enhance the study of texts written by women philosophers from Antiquity up to now and intended to give opportunity to young scholars to connect and to build networks Presenting such a collection is even more urgent today because a diversification of the canon has long been called for Nevertheless to date there is little explicit material available for this purpose To make this book suitable for both academics and students it is structured in such a way that readers can use excerpts and individual chapters from it that suit their needs be it in moral philosophy politics or phenomenology etc Containing chapters on women such as Suor Juana Emilie Du Ch telet and Nisia Floresta and supplemented by contextualization namely by some brief biographical information and by the systematic integration of her argument into the debates of the respective periods this book is an important resource highlighting the achievements and value of women in philosophy and calling for a further diversification of the canon

The Phenomenological Critique of Mathematisation and the Question of Responsibility Lubica Učník, Ivan Chvatík, Anita Williams, 2014-11-19 This edited collection discusses phenomenological critiques of formalism and their relevance to the problem of responsibility and the life world The book deals with themes of formalization of knowledge in connection to the life world the natural world the history of science and our responsibility for both our epistemic claims and the world in which we live Readers will discover critiques of formalization the life world and responsibility and a collation and comparison of Pato ka s and Husserl s work on these themes Considerable literature on Husserl is presented here and the two themes of epistemic responsibility and the life world are discussed together This work specifically emphasizes the interrelatedness of these existential aspects of his work self responsibility and the crisis as not only epistemological but also related to human life This volume also introduces Jan Pato ka to English speaking readers as a phenomenologist in his own right Pato ka shows us in particular the significance of the modern abyss between our thinking and the world Readers will discover that this abyss is of concern for our everyday experience because it leads to a rupture in our understanding of the world between the world of our living and its scientific construct We see that Pato ka continually emphasized the relevance of Husserl s work to existential questions relating to human responsibility and the life world which he admits is left largely implicit in Husserl s work This edited collection will spark discussion on the question of responsibility against the backdrop of formalized knowledge which is increasingly inaccessible to human understanding Despite the complexity of some of the analyzed ideas this book discusses these themes in a clear and readable way This work is scholarly exact in its discussion and authoritative in its reading but at the same time accessible to anyone motivated to understand these debates
