grief and learn to live and laugh again The Figurative Works of Chen Hongshou (1599-1652) Tamara Heimark Bentley, Hongshou Chen, 2012 Despite the importance of Chen Hongshou 1599 1652 as an artist and scholar of the late Ming period until now no full length study in English has focused on his work Author Tamara H Bentley takes a broadly interdisciplinary approach treating Chen s oeuvre in relation to literary themes and economic changes and linking these larger concerns to visual analyses In so doing Bentley sheds new light not only on Chen but also on an important cultural moment in the first half of the seventeenth century when Chinese scholar artists began to direct their work towards anonymous public markets The Arms of the Future Jack Watling, 2023-09-07 From sensor fuzed munitions and autonomous weapons to ground moving target indication radar laser vibrometers and artificial intelligence the weapons of warfare are undergoing a rapid transformation with modern technologies reshaping how armies intend to fight in the twenty first century The Arms of the Future analyses how the emergence of novel weapons systems is shaping the risks and opportunities on the battlefield Drawing on extensive practical observation and experimentation the book unpacks the operational challenges new weapons pose on the battlefield and how armies might be structured to overcome them At a time when defence spending across NATO is on the rise and conflict with Russia raises new questions of what it means to fight a truly modern war Watling examines not just the arms to be employed but how they can be fielded and wielded to survive and prevail in future wars Beholding Ken Wilder, 2020-05-14 Beholding considers the spatially situated encounter between artwork and spectator It argues that artworks created for specific places or conditions structure a reciprocal encounter which is completed by the presence of a beholder These are works which demand the beholder s share but not as Ernst Gombrich famously claimed to sustain an illusion Rather Beholding reconfigures Gombrich s notion of the beholder s share as a set of licensed imaginative and cognitive projections Each chapter frames a particular work of art from the remit of a complementary theoretical text The book establishes a transhistorical notion of the spatially situated encounter and considers the role of the architectural host in bringing the beholder s orientation into play The book engages a diverse range of practices from Renaissance painting and group portraiture to intermedia practices of installation and performance art Written within the broad remit of reception aesthetics the book proposes a phenomenological theory of beholding argued through an in depth examination of artworks and their spatial contexts selected for their explanatory potential These various encounters allocate different constitutive roles to the beholder bringing not only spatial and temporal orientation into play but also a repertoire of anticipated ideas and beliefs
