Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka

January Intake 2016 Egerton University:

Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style The Grants Register 2016

Palgrave Macmillan Ltd, 2016-12-27 The most comprehensive guide on postgraduate grants and professional funding globally For thirty four years it has been the leading source for up to date information on the availability of and eligibility for postgraduate and professional awards Each entry is verified by its awarding body and all information is updated annually

(Deon) P. van Tonder, Washington T. Dudu, 2023-03-01 This book critically examines the role of governments in promoting parity during and in post pandemic education This comes from the realisation that the pandemic has deepened the crisis by depleting the meagre resources that African countries might have devoted to normative educational practices where those on the margins would have been pushed further behind while the privileged would have been further initiated into the cultural and capital flows of private schools and historically research intensive institutions of higher learning This has far reaching implications for the education of underprivileged citizens and education particularly modes and modalities of delivery has to be reimagined to subvert the challenges wrought by the pandemic This book significantly bridges the gap between the pre and post COVID 19 pandemic pedagogical practices and the erstwhile modalities that have been resilient over time The book focuses on ways to stave off pedagogical challenges that face countries as the global pandemic makes its mark Dynamics of Violent Extremism in South Asia Shafi Md Mostofa, 2023-02-02 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the multifaceted dimensions of violent extremist groups in South Asia attending especially to the relationships between the local and regional forces influencing their emergence and activities In addition research in the book shows how political security sensitive events and processes are framed and the factors responsible for such framing Similarly it discusses prevalent discourses on anti violent extremism policy and the on the ground militarized preventive reactive interventions they guide which are inspired by ideologies that increasingly reflect controversial understandings of the experiences of people within conditions of state fragility In doing so the book balances attention to local conditions that frame the rise and fall or persistency of incidences of violent extremism The systems based ecological framing of issues in the book is influenced by a concern for the broader questions of securitization global governance poverty under development and armed conflicts in South Asia An Unfamiliar America

Ari Helo, Mikko Saikku, 2020-11-12 This collection focuses on conceptions of the unfamiliar from the viewpoint of mainstream American history aliens immigrants ethnic groups and previously unencountered ideas and ideologies in Trumpian America The book suggests bringing historical thinking back to the center of American Studies given that it has been recently challenged by the influential memory studies boom As much as identity building appears to be the central concern for much of the current practice in American history writing it is worth keeping in mind that historical truth may not always directly contribute to one's identity building The researcher's constant quest for truth does not equate to already possessing it History changes all the time because it consists of our constant reinterpretation of the past It is only the past that does not change This collection aims at keeping these two apart while scrutinizing a variety of contested topics in American history from xenophobic attitudes toward eighteenth century university professors Apache masculinity Ku Klux Klan Tom Waits's lyrics and the politics of the Trump era Borrowed Land, Stolen Labor, and the Holy Spirit Diane T. Feldman, 2025-07-15 Borrowed Land Stolen Labor and the Holy Spirit The Struggle for Power and Equality in Holmes County Mississippi chronicles the profound history of a low income county that became a pivotal site for Delta organizing during the civil rights movement Landowning African American farmers who enjoyed more economic independence than sharecroppers emerged as the grassroots leaders of the movement The volume begins with the county s Native American heritage moving through the periods of removal land sales to speculators the rapid increase of enslaved labor in the nineteenth century and early African American political engagement during Reconstruction Author Diane T Feldman explores how African Americans fostered cooperative landownership efforts in the 1880s and 1920s alongside the development of schools and churches particularly the Church of God in Christ a denomination founded in Holmes County The fight for voting rights started with African American farmers in the 1950s and gained momentum with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in the 1960s Their struggle to desegregate schools culminated in the landmark Supreme Court case Alexander v Holmes which abolished dual school systems in the South The final chapters cover the past sixty years and current initiatives to restore food production in the Mississippi Delta Enriched with recent and historic photographs this volume serves as a microhistory of a single county illuminating broader themes prevalent throughout Mississippi and the rural South

The Freemason's Chronicle ,1899 Searching for W.P.M. Kennedy
Martin L. Friedland,2020-04-02 Born in Ireland in 1879 W P M Kennedy was a distinguished Canadian academic and the leading Canadian constitutional law scholar for much of the twentieth century Despite his trailblazing career and intriguing personal life Kennedy s story is largely a mystery Weaving together a number of key events Martin L Friedland s lively biography discusses Kennedy s contributions as a legal and interdisciplinary scholar his work at the University of Toronto where he founded the Faculty of Law as well as his personal life detailing stories about his family and important friends such as Prime Minister Mackenzie King Kennedy earned a reputation in some circles for being something of a scoundrel and Friedland does not shy away from addressing Kennedy s exaggerated involvement in drafting the Irish constitution his relationships with female students and his quest for recognition Throughout the biography Friedland interjects with his own personal narratives surrounding his interactions with the Kennedy family and how he came to acquire the private letters noted in the book The result is a readable accessible biography of an important figure in the history of Canadian intellectual life

Open Citizen Science Data and Methods Anne Bowser,Sven Schade,Alex de Sherbinin,2022-11-25 Secular Chains Philip Connell,2016-04-07 Secular Chains offers an original and richly contextualized account of the relationship between poetry and religious controversy between 1649 and 1745 This was a period of political conflict and intellectual upheaval in which traditional sources of spiritual authority were variously challenged and transformed This study reveals the importance of English literary culture for our understanding of this process and throws new light on the dynamics of change and continuity between the puritan revolution and the early Enlightenment Based on extensive research in both printed and manuscript sources the book combines detailed case studies of major literary figures with a sustained historical narrative linking the republican moment of the 1650s the conflicts and crises of the Restoration and the ecclesiastical politics of the early eighteenth century Milton and Dryden provide the principal focus of the first three chapters which explore the divisive issue of church settlement in the work of both writers together with the increasingly prominent rhetoric of anti clericalism and irreligion in the poetry and polemics of the later seventeenth century Subsequent chapters extend the book s argument to the embattled condition of the Church of England in the decades after 1688 and the significant contribution of contemporary literary culture to a range of religious and philosophical argument from heterodox free thinking to Newtonian natural theology Secular Chains demonstrates the close and continued relationship between poetry and religious politics in the age of Milton and Pope and provides a new framework for understanding this complex and turbulent period in English literary history Writing the History of the British Stage Richard Schoch,2016-09-12 This is the first book on British theatre historiography It traces the practice of theatre history from its origins in the Restoration to its emergence as an academic discipline in the early twentieth century In this compelling revisionist study Richard Schoch reclaims the deep history of British theatre history valorizing the usually overlooked scholarship undertaken by antiquarians booksellers bibliographers journalists and theatrical insiders none of whom considered themselves to be professional historians Drawing together deep archival research close readings of historical texts from the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and an awareness of contemporary debates about disciplinary practice Schoch overturns received interpretations of British theatre historiography and shows that the practice and the diverse practitioners of theatre history were far more complicated and far more sophisticated than we had realised His book is a landmark contribution to how theatre historians today can understand their own history Mobilizing Mercy Sarah Glassford,2016-11-01 For more than a century the Canadian Red Cross Society has provided help and comfort to vulnerable people at home and abroad In the first detailed national history of the organization Sarah Glassford reveals how the European born Red Cross movement came to Canada and took root and why it flourished From its origins in battlefield medicine to the creation of Canada s first nationwide free blood transfusion service during the Cold War Mobilizing Mercy charts crucial organizational changes the influence of key leaders and the impact of social cultural political economic and international trends over time Glassford shows that the key to the Red Cross longevity lies in its ability to reinvent itself by tapping into the concerns and ambitions of diverse groups including militia doctors government officials middle class women and schoolchildren Through periods of war and peace the Canadian Red Cross pioneered new services and filled gaps in government aid to become a ubiquitous agency on the wartime home front a major domestic public health organization and a respected provider of international humanitarian aid Opening a window onto the shifting relationship between voluntary organizations and the state Mobilizing Mercy is a compelling portrait of a major humanitarian organization its people and its ever evolving place in Canadian society Borderless Empire Bram

Hoonhout,2020-01-15 Borderless Empire explores the volatile history of Dutch Guiana in particular the forgotten colonies of Essequibo and Demerara to provide new perspectives on European empire building in the Atlantic world Bram Hoonhout argues that imperial expansion was a process of improvisation at the colonial level rather than a project that was centrally orchestrated from the metropolis Furthermore he emphasizes that colonial expansion was far more transnational than the oft used divisions into national Atlantics suggest In so doing he transcends the framework of the Dutch Atlantic by looking at the connections across cultural and imperial boundaries The openness of Essequibo and Demerara affected all levels of the colonial society Instead of counting on metropolitan soldiers the colonists relied on Amerindian allies who captured runaway slaves and put down revolts Instead of waiting for Dutch slavers the planters bought enslaved Africans from foreign smugglers Instead of trying to populate the colonies with Dutchmen the local authorities welcomed adventurers from many different origins The result was a borderless world in which slavery was contingent on Amerindian support and colonial trade was rooted in illegality These transactions created a colonial society that was far more Atlantic than Dutch The

American Dream and Dreams Deferred Carlton D. Floyd,Thomas Ehrlich Reifer,2022-11-14 The American Dream and Dreams Deferred A Dialectical Fairy Tale shows how rival interpretations of the Dream reveal the dialectical tensions therein Exploring often neglected voices literatures and histories Carlton D Floyd and Thomas Ehrlich Reifer highlight moments when the American Dream appears both simultaneously possible and out of reach In so doing the authors invite readers to make a new collective dream of a better future on socially just multicultural and ecologically sustainable foundations

Military Men of Feeling Holly Furneaux,2016-03-25 Military Men of Feeling considers the popularity of the figure of the gentle soldier in the Victorian period It traces a persistent narrative swerve from tales of war violence to reparative accounts of soldiers as moral exemplars homemakers adopters of children on the battlefield and nurses This material invites us to think afresh about Victorian masculinity and Victorian militarism It challenges ideas about the separation of military and domestic life and about the incommunicability of war experience Focusing on representations of soldiers experiences of touch and emotion the book combines the work of well known writers including Charles Dickens Charles Kingsley William Makepeace Thackeray Charlotte Yonge with previously unstudied writing and craft produced by British soldiers in the

Crimean War 1854 56 The Crimean War was pivotal in shaping British attitudes to military masculinity A range of media enabled unprecedented public engagement with the progress and infamous blunders of the conflict Soldiers and civilians reflected on appropriate behaviour across ranks forms of heroism the physical suffering of the troops administrative management and the need for army reform The book considers how the military man of feeling contributes to the rethinking of gender roles class and military hierarchy in the mid nineteenth century and how this figure was used in campaigns for reform The gentle soldier could also do more bellicose social and political work disarming anti war critiques and helping people to feel better about war This book looks at the difficult mixed politics of this figure It considers questions debated in the nineteenth century and which remain urgent today about the relationship between feeling and action and the ethics of an emotional response to war It makes a case for the importance of emotional and tactile military history bringing the Victorian military man of feeling into contemporary debates about liberal warriors and soldiers as social workers The Tablet ,1958
