FAR EAST COMMAND

CITATION FOR LEGION OF MERIT

Lieutenant Colonel OLINTO M. BARSANTI, 034037, General Staff Corps, United States Army, as the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-1, of the Advance Command Post of General Headquarters, during the period 27 June to 12 July 1950, was responsible for setting up the entire administrative organization of the headquarters for the Advance Command Post and United States Army in Korea including Korea Military Advisory Group. John H. Roush Jr.,2017-02-20 This volume presents a dramatic collection of significant combat experiences of seventy nine men in World War II as told from one combat veteran to another In the eighty six chapters are stories involving all the various branches of combat service and all of the various theaters of war Within reminiscences veterans of dangerous encounters are much more apt to open up with details in discussions with men who have also experienced combat Many find it emotionally distressing to talk of the war with the general public or to recall the horrors of warfare This is not a history book nor any attempt to tell the big picture of grand campaigns Instead it is a collection of personal involvements in one at a time incidents of conflict Many ask what it was like in World War II for our conflicts in recent years have been vastly different It has been said that war has become and continues to be an intractable social phenomenon While some say its elimination is necessary to the survival of mankind we do not seem to have approached closer to that elimination in the sixty seven years since World War II ended Encounters of warfare remain a stark reality within the present era That being so perhaps we should read of what happened as recalled in the most vivid memories of men involved in the most overpowering conflict of modern warfare Sincerely John Roush Infantry Journal ,1946 Army ,1967 A Ramble through My War: Anzio and Other Joys Charles F.
