Water Policy in Australia Lin Crase, 2011 In the last twenty years policy makers in Australia have been forced to acknowledge that it is not possible to perpetually supply more water at a low cost Consequently the country has begun to focus on water resource management through legislative and institutional change attempting to allocate water in a more economically efficient and socially and environmentally acceptable manner This book provides insight into the challenges of institutional change as well as valuable lessons on the design of property rights for complex resources Contributors from across disciplines address pertinent issues such as irrigation in the Murray Darling basin one of Australia's largest drainage divisions the progression from common law riparian rights to share based entitlements that encourage sustainable water use and the potential outcomes of the recent National Water Initiative a wide ranging strategy to improve water management and simultaneously maintain healthy groundwater and river systems

Learning from Weather Modification Law for the Governance of Regional Solar Radiation Management Manon Simon, 2024-05-09 This book investigates the role of cloud seeding laws in governing regional solar radiation management SRM activities It challenges the prevailing belief that cloud seeding laws are irrelevant to regional SRM governance and argues for their applicability Through case studies in Australia Canada and the United States the book highlights the need for legal frameworks that promote cross scale interactions stakeholder participation flexible decision making and conflict resolution It advocates for adopting adaptive governance principles to effectively manage the risks and uncertainties associated with regional SRM interventions By filling a gap in the existing literature this book offers valuable insights and recommendations for the governance of regional SRM shedding light on the potential of cloud seeding laws to inform and shape SRM governance frameworks It provides a comprehensive analysis of the legal and normative aspects offering practical guidance for policymakers researchers and stakeholders involved in regional SRM initiatives

Inter-Basin Water Transfer Fereidoun Ghassemi, Ian White, 2007-01-11 Increasing demands for irrigation domestic and industrial water have generated a massive growth world wide in the number of large water infrastructure projects involving the transfer of water from basins considered to have surplus water to those where the demand for water has exceeded or is expected to exceed supplies Using the experiences of projects in Australia United States Canada China and India this book examines case studies within the diverse geographical climatic economic and policy regimes operating in these countries It examines the water resources of Australia the driest inhabited continent and explores inter basin water transfer projects in the United States Canada China and India examining their benefits and impacts within these nations contrasting economies and governance systems This comprehensive and well illustrated text will be of great interest to professionals and researchers in the fields of hydrology water resources and to those engaged in environmental science policy and regulation Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 39 - 1953 , Annual Report India. Ministry of Water Resources,2009 Transforming Power Aynsley Kellow,1996 Originally published in 1996 this book is an exploration and analysis of the electricity industry in the context of uncertainty following the energy crisis of the 1970s and concern over the greenhouse effect Few industries demand a similar level of foresight and planning or such vast amounts of capital The book examines five well known Australian Canadian and New Zealand cases and closely analyses the ways in which various agencies have sought ends to serve the means at their disposal Electricity has long been regarded as a natural monopoly but questions of privatisation regulation and government control are increasingly prevalent The book explores these issues and also notes the experiences of other countries in its analysis of institutional reform Aynsley Kellow argues for different approaches to electricity planning which offer much by way of economic savings and minimisation of environmental problems Annual Report of the Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Programme Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Programme,2010 Archiving Websites Adrian Brown,2006-06 This important book is the first to offer practical guidance to information management professionals seeking to implement web archiving programmes of their own It is essential reading for those who need to collect and preserve specific elements of the web from national domains or individual subject areas to an organization s own website Drawing on the author s experience of managing the National Archives web archiving programme together with lessons learned from other international initiatives this book provides a comprehensive overview of current best practice It assumes only a basic understanding of IT and web technologies but also offers much to more technically oriented readers Contents include the development of web archiving selection policies collection methods quality assurance preservation delivery to user optimizing websites for archiving legislation managing a web archiving programme future trends Readership Written to address audiences from the whole spectrum of information management sectors this book is vital reading for three types of reader policy makers who need to make decisions about establishing or developing an institutional web archiving programme information management professionals who may be required to implement a web archiving programme and website owners and web masters who may be required to facilitate archiving of their own websites

Hydro Tasmania Annual Report: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Hydro Tasmania Annual Report : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
