Bureau of Foreign Commerce, World Trade Information Service ,1955 Bilingualism, Language Development and Processing across the Lifespan Julia Herschensohn, 2022-09-19 How does knowledge of a first or second language develop and how is that knowledge used in real time comprehension and production of one or two languages Language development and processing are the central topics that this book explores initially in terms of first language s and then in terms of additional languages Human growth and development necessarily involve the passage of time implicating this orthogonal factor and leading to the observation that capacities may vary across the lifespan Two theoretical frameworks have historically attributed explanations for knowledge and use of language nature versus nurture approaches the former credits biogenetic intrinsic characteristics while the latter ascribes environmental extrinsic experiences as the causes of developmental change The evidence examined throughout this book offers a more nuanced and complex view eschewing dichotomy and favoring a hybrid approach that takes into account a range of internal and external influences

Reports and Documents United States. Congress, 1957 The National Review ,1927 The Spectator ,1926 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Spoken Here Mark Abley, 2011-04-13 Whether on the other side of the world or in our own backyard languages everywhere are fading into oblivion Mark Abley explores what the human family stands to lose and explains why some endangered languages continue to thrive Within the next couple of generations most of the world s 6000 languages will vanish due mainly to the unstoppable tide of English With an open mind and a well worn passport award winning journalist and poet Mark Abley tells entertaining and vital stories about why languages matter From Oklahoma to Provence aboriginal Australia to Baffin Island the cultures are radically different but the problems of shrinking linguistic and cultural richness are painfully similar Abley s investigation provides a stunning glimpse of the beauty and intricacies of languages like Yiddish and Yuchi Mohawk and Manx Inuktitut and Proven al More importantly it offers a sympathetic and memorable portrait of the people who still speak languages under threat When a language dies out gone too are stories that have been told for centuries unique ways of seeing the world and perhaps even ways of solving problems both large and small Abley believes we must see languages as abundant sources of richness wonder and usefulness And he shows that hope still exists that the determination of even one person can revive a whole language and its culture in the process creating something new changing and alive exactly what languages do best

Dialogue in Places of Learning Adam

Cooper,2016-06-23 Showing how youth from one of the poorest and most violent neighborhoods in Cape Town South Africa learn differently in three educational contexts in classrooms in a community hip hop crew on a youth radio show this book illuminates how South African schools like schools elsewhere subtly reproduce inequalities by sorting students into social hierarchies linked to assessments of their use of language Highlighting the voices and perspectives of young South Africans this case study of youth in the global South explores how language is linked to cultural mixing which occurred during colonialism and slavery and continues through patterns of global mobility Dialogue in Places of Learning Youth Amplified in South Africa demonstrates how language and learning are bound to space and place
