Bayesian Astrophysics Andrés Asensio Ramos,Íñigo Arregui,2018-04-26 Bayesian methods are being increasingly employed in many different areas of research in the physical sciences In astrophysics models are used to make predictions to be compared to observations These observations offer information that is incomplete and uncertain so the comparison has to be pursued by following a probabilistic approach With contributions from leading experts this volume covers the foundations of Bayesian inference a description of computational methods and recent results from their application to areas such as exoplanet detection and characterisation image reconstruction and cosmology It appeals to both young researchers seeking to learn about Bayesian methods as well as to astronomers wishing to incorporate these approaches in their research areas It provides the next generation of researchers with the tools of modern data analysis that are already becoming standard in current astrophysical research

General Education and the Development of Global Citizenship in Hong Kong, Taiwan and Mainland China Jun Xing, Pak-Sheung Ng, Chloe Cheng, 2012-11-27 General Education has taken center stage in the greater China area Hong Kong Taiwan and mainland China because of a number of important developments First globalization has created both opportunities and challenges for college students When they graduate and enter the real world they must have the cultural sensitivities and social skills in addition to their professional training to compete in a knowledge based global economy Equally significant for institutions of higher education pressing global problems challenge traditional disciplines and demand new forms of learning that reshapes the boundaries of knowledge In response to those rapidly changing dynamics general education has taken an increasingly important role in undergraduate education As the first English publication on the subject this anthology brings together a distinguished group of General Education scholars and teachers from Hong Kong Taiwan and mainland China
