them so you don't have to see about fine print admissions details like the lowest test scores for admissions at a college. The Starter Guide to College for Clueless Students Parents is a good value. It doesn't have to be read all at once but can guide a student and the parents as time passes even loaned to others.

Teaching English Literature 16-19 Carol

Atherton, Andrew Green, Gary Snapper, 2013-07-18 Teaching English Literature 16-19 is an essential new resource that is suitable for use both as an introductory guide for those new to teaching literature and also as an aid to reflection and renewal for more experienced teachers. Using the central philosophy that students will learn best when actively engaged in discussion and encouraged to apply what they have learnt independently, this highly practical new text contains discussion of the principles behind the teaching of literature at this level, guidelines on course planning, pedagogy content and subject knowledge, advice on teaching literature taking into account a range of broader contexts such as literary criticism, literary theory, performance, publishing, creative writing and journalism, examples of practical activities, worksheets and suggestions for texts, guides to available resources. Aimed at English teachers, teacher trainees, teacher trainers and advisors, this resource is packed full of new and workable ideas for teaching all English literature courses.

The Student's Guide to the Internet 2000-2001 Ian Winship, Alison McNab, 2000 A guide to the Internet written specifically for university and college students, this handbook explains procedures and lists major subject information sources to help readers explore the Net to further their studies. For this revised edition, URLs have been reviewed and updated. Many of the resources listed are new and more sources are listed to help with multimedia, student sites and searching the Internet. Topics include electronic mail, discussion lists and newsgroups, essential network etiquette, techniques for browsing the WWW, electronic journals and bibliographic databases, help with overseas study, loans, jobs, counselling and support, subject searching, resource guides and gateways, what's new, keeping up with new resources and producing your own Web pages.
