Emotional Intelligence Quiz With Answers:

Emotional Intelligence Gerald Matthews, Moshe Zeidner, Richard D. Roberts, Introduction We all know someone who is incredibly bright and yet cannot seem to pull their life together The brilliant student who flunks out of university or the incredible intelligent worker who can't seem to get ahead in their company We know from our familiarity with them that they have a good to superior intelligence level but that doesn't seem to be enough to ensure success And at the same time we can probably describe in some form why we feel these people have not been successful Our description would include certain traits or behaviors that have nothing to do with intelligence

Emotional Intelligence Denys Santos Blell, 2011 Emotional Intelligence provides practical advice and strategies for improving emotional and social intelligence quotients by embodying the disciplines of personal authenticity unconditional trust respect truth honesty fairness care openness and forgiveness Understanding the emotional effects of blame and the importance of personal accountability will lead to learning and professional success Personal and professional success in a diverse organization depends on the ability to understand master and express emotions that is self mastery and to perceive and respond to the emotions of the people with whom we live learn and work that is empathy These two faculties represent our emotional intelligence the capacity that determines our actions personal patterns of interactions and the pattern and quality of all relationships It is therefore essential to establishing success in the diverse workplace Fundamentally a community is a system of relationships between people with common interests Focusing on commonality raises the priority of appreciating and understanding differences and this priority comes from within a community rather than being imposed on it from outside Thus we must move beyond diversity and differences to commonalities as the foundation for building effective organizations and communities Learn to refocus your organization on commonalities develop effective strategies for personal accountability and aim for success with Emotional Intelligence
