

Writers Workshop- Poetry: Powerful Thoughts in Tiny Packages

Week 1: Poetry Exploration and Exercises Week

Day 1: Observing Everyday Objects with Poets' Eyes

Notes

***I have used to have a large collection of shells, feathers, rocks, leaves, seeds, magnifying glass

***shells, paper

***I will write down on a post-it when they use a strategy from our what is poetry and. Stick it on the poster that they used.

Connections

Writers, today is a great day for Writers Workshop! Today is the first day of our new unit of study. Today we start writing poetry! Every day that month we are going to meet right here that is our usual spot and I am going to teach you something to try out our poet.

Some are new to poetry I want to give you some time to really understand poems and poetry. So all this week, I am going to teach you some new ways your brain can think the thinking a poet and then you will have a chance to go off and learn more about poetry through the activities that I have planned for you. All week you will get a chance to really explore poetry and really get to understand about poetry in and then next week you will get to try writing your own poem!

Teaching Point

The first thing that I want to teach you about poetry is how you make a poem. The most important thing that you need to know about being a poet is that poets look at regular objects with fresh new eyes.

Write Poets Use Chart

Write look at everyday objects with a poet's eye

Poets, today I want to show you how a real poet looks at an everyday object and sees it with poets eyes. When they look at the object they see it in a fresh way. The object will remind them of something else.

Let me show you what I mean. I am looking at this feather using a poet's eye. When I look at it I don't just see a feather, it reminds me of a tree with beautiful green leaves. It also looks like long, thin grass growing in the wind by a river.

Active Engagement

Now I want you try using your poet's eye with your writing partner. Look at that piece of rock, what does it remind you of? What else could it be besides a piece of rock?
