Internet Lesbian and Gay Television Series, 1996-2014 Vincent Terrace, 2015-05-23 Created around the world and available only on the Web internet television series are independently produced mostly low budget shows that often feature talented but unknown performers Typically financed through crowd funding they are filmed with borrowed equipment and volunteer casts and crews and viewers find them through word of mouth or by chance The third of five volumes on Internet TV series this book covers 335 alphabetically arranged gay and lesbian programs 1996 2014 giving casts credits story lines episode descriptions websites dates and commentary A complete index lists program titles and headings for gay lesbian bi sexual transgender and drag queen shows Heterosexual Plots and Lesbian Narratives Marilyn Farwell, 1996 What is lesbian literature Must it contain overtly lesbian characters and portray them in a positive light Must the author be overtly or covertly lesbian Does there have to be a lesbian theme and must it be politically acceptable Marilyn Farwell here examines the work of such writers as Adrienne Rich Marion Zimmer Bradley Jeanette Winterson Gloria Naylor and Marilyn Hacker to address these questions Dividing their writings into two genres the romantic story and the heroic or quest story Farwell addresses some of the most problematic issues at the intersection of literature sex gender and postmodernism Illustrating how the generational conflict between the lesbian feminists of twenty years ago and the queer theorists of today stokes the critical fires of contemporary lesbian and literary theory Heterosexual Plots and Lesbian Narratives concludes by arguing for a broad and generous definition of lesbian writing Bisexuality and the Challenge to Lesbian Politics Paula C Rust, 1995-10-01 The subject of bisexuality continues to divide the lesbian and gay community At pride marches in films such as Go Fish at academic conferences the role and status of bisexuals is hotly contested Within lesbian communities formed to support lesbians in a patriarchal and heterosexist society bisexual women are often perceived as a threat or as a political weakness Bisexual women feel that they are regarded with suspicion and distrust if not openly scorned Drawing on her research with over 400 bisexual and lesbian women surveying the treatment of bisexuality in the lesbian and gay press and examining the recent growth of a self consciously political bisexual movement Paula Rust addresses a range of questions pertaining to the political and social relationships between lesbians and bisexual women By tracing the roots of the controversy over bisexuality among lesbians back to the early lesbian feminist debates of the 1970s Rust argues that those debates created the circumstances in which bisexuality became an inevitable challenge to lesbian politics She also traces it forward predicting the future of sexual politics Myth of the Modern Homosexual Rictor Norton, 2016-10-06 With careful reasoning supported by wide ranging scholarship this study exposes the fallacies of social constructionist theories within lesbian and gay studies and makes a forceful case for the autonomy of queer identity and culture It presents evidence that queers are part of a centuries old history possessing a unified historical and cultural identity The volume reviews the fundamental historiographical issues about the nature of queer history arguing that a new generation of queer historians will need to abandon authoritarian dogma founded upon politically correct ideology rather than historical experience Norton offers a clear exposition of the evidence for ancient indigenous and pre modern queer cultural continuity revealing how knowledge of that history has been suppressed and censored and sets out the queer cultural essentialist position on the key topics of queer history role identity bisexuality orientation linguistics social control homophobia subcultures and kinship patterns

What a Lesbian Looks Like National Lesbian and Gay Survey (Organization),1992 The National Lesbian and Gay Survey is a mass observation project set up in 1985 to record the experience of lesbians and gay men This work draws on that material to provide an anthology of personal writings from lesbians from all walks of life which offers a picture of lesbian life in general Spinsters and Lesbians Trisha Franzen,1996 Americans have long held fast to a rigid definition of womanhood revolving around husband home and children Women who rebelled against this definition and carved out independent lives for themselves have often been rendered invisible in U S history In this unusual comparative study Trisha Franzen brings to light the remarkable lives of two generations of autonomous women Progressive Era spinsters and mid twentieth century lesbians While both groups of women followed similar paths to independence separating from their families pursuing education finding work and creating woman centered communities they faced different material and cultural challenge and came to claim very different identities Many of the turn of the century women were prominent during their time from internationally recognized classicist Edith Hamilton through two early Directors of the Women s Bureau Mary Anderson and Freida Miller Maturing during the time of a broad and powerful women s movement they were among that era s new women the often single women who were viewed as in the vanguard of women s struggle for equality In contrast never married women after World War II especially lesbians were considered beyond the pale of real womanhood Before the women s and gay lesbian liberation movements they had no positive contemporary images of alternative lives for women Highlighting the similarities and differences between women oriented women confronting changing gender and sexuality systems Spinsters and Lesbians thus traces a continuum among women who constructed lives outside institutionalized heterosexuality

Lesbian Communities Esther D Rothblum, Penny Sablove, 2014-06-11 I had just witnessed women who shingled their own roofs drove eighteen wheeler trucks and built their own houses as well as kept them clean and cooked a damn good meal On women s land I am a first class citizen I m treated as an equal I now see the world with righteous anger and hope Living in womyn s community has provided that lens for me Elizabeth Sturru third wave feminist One of the driving forces in the lives of many lesbians is the search for community in a society that favors heterosexuality and often turns a cold shoulder toward women who love women Lesbian Communities Festivals RVs and the Internet takes you inside flourishing lesbian communities physical spiritual and virtual online that provide practical help emotional support and much needed outlets for creative expression Exploring communities functioning in harmony with general American society as well as separatist groups festival communities which form for short times annually and informal online groups offering meaningful communication to physically isolated lesbians this book offers a ray of light to those whose search is still ongoing It also provides much needed analysis of the current state of lesbian communities some decades old now for educators researchers and social scientists In Lesbian Communities Festivals RVs and the Internet Susan Krieger revisits the vibrant community she first explored in The Mirror Dance An African American member of Old Lesbians Organizing for Change shares the details of her search for a cooperative caring space for aging lesbians and what led to her eventual decision to create this space herself And one of the founders of Hallomas a back to the land community that has survived in northern California since the late 1970s reflects on that unique community's birth and life with 13 photographs and illustrations The book also bears witness to a life changing encounter and dialogue between second wave feminists from the woman's land collective of Arcadia and third wave feminists You'll also learn about the birth joys and tribulations of an online community that becomes physical each year at the Michigan Womyn's Music Festival the accidental birth of a lesbian community in isolated and fundamentalist dominated West Texas the international online lesbian parenting community called MOMS affectionately known as Dykes and Tykes how it began what belonging to this community provides for its members and a look toward the future the debate on inclusiveness versus exclusiveness of bisexual women transgender people and the male children of lesbians in lesbian communities the current decline of availability and dilution of the purity of lesbian only space and the rise of segregation by social class and financial status and oppression within the lesbian community the current plight of lesbian bookstores which since the 1970s have served not only as gateways to a multitude of lesbian communities but as the centers of lesbian communities themselves the online experience of lesbians searching for community in Japan the issues facing Jewish lesbians and the formation of Nice Jewish Girls a Montreal group for anyone who identifies as a lesbian bisexual or queer woman and their non Jewish partners and friends the power of myth and mythmaking to help women regain lost strength and reclaim lost history From the efforts of back to the land groups creating wimmin's space to life in modern residential retirement settings this book explores the places created by and for lesbians Photos and illustrations bring these women and their communities to life Lesbian Communities Festivals RVs and the Internet w A Part of the Heart Can't Be Eaten Tristan

Taormino, 2023-08-28 In A Part of the Heart Can't Be Eaten award winning author sex educator filmmaker and podcast host Tristan Taormino shares her coming of age story revealing how her radical sexuality and unconventional career grew out of an extraordinary queer father daughter relationship Raised by a hard working single mother on Long Island Tristan got her sex ed from the 1980s TV show Solid Gold and The Joy of Sex She spent summers at drag shows in Provincetown with her father Bill who had come out as gay in the mid 1970s Her sexual identity bloomed during her college years at Wesleyan University where she discovered her desire for butches and kinky sex Tristan's world began to fall apart when her dad was diagnosed with AIDS After a series of devastating events she moved to the messy glorious world of 1990s New York City In the midst of grief and depression she helped change queer sexual subculture with her zine Pucker Up her infamous The Village Voice column and her editorship of legendary lesbian porn magazine On Our Backs After the publication of her first book The Ultimate Guide to Anal Sex for Women Tristan followed her own path that marked the beginning of her work as a trailblazing feminist pornographer After a lifetime of outrageous adventures Tristan reflects on the bonds loss and mental health struggles that shaped her She weaves together history from her father s unpublished memoir exploring the surprising ways their personal patterns converge and diverge Bracingly emotional and erotically charged A Part of the Heart Can t Be Eaten reveals the transformative power of queer pleasure and defiance Ernest Hemingway R. Fantina,2005-08-19 This study breaks new ground by examining the profoundly submissive and masochistic posture toward women exhibited by many of Hemingway s heroes from Jake Barnes in The Sun Also Rises to David Bourne in The Garden of Eden The discussion draws on the ideas of diverse authors revealing that masochistic aesthetic informs many of the texts Queerly Phrased Anna Livia,Kira Hall,1997-11-20 This pioneering collection of previously unpublished articles on lesbian gay bisexual and transgender language combines queer theory and feminist theory with the latest thinking on language and gender The book expands the field well beyond the study of gay slang to consider gay dialects such as Polari in England early modern discourse on gay practices and late twentieth century descriptions of homosexuality These essays examine the conversational patterns of queer speakers in a wide variety of settings from women s friendship groups to university rap groups and electronic mail postings Taking a global rather than regional approach the contributors herein study the language usage of sexually liminal communities in a variety of linguistic and cultural contexts such as lesbian speakers of American Sign Language Japanese gay male couples Hindi speaking hijras eunuchs in North India Hausa speaking yan daudu feminine men in Nigeria and French and Yiddish gay groups The most accessible and diverse collection of its kind Queerly Phrased Language Gender and Sexuality sets a new standard in the study of language s impact on the construction of sexuality

Lesbians in Academia Beth Mintz,Esther D. Rothblum,2013-10-31 How can being closeted or out affect the personal and professional life of a lesbian in academia This volume a collection of over thirty personal narratives explores what it s like to be a lesbian working in a college or university setting Along with the stories are in depth analyses of the narratives by other academics Issues such as race class and age and how these factors distinguish each individual s place in the academy are examined The contributors have written from a wide range of experiences different degrees of outness various academic disciplines many geographic locations and several types of academic settings Polish Sexual Revolutions Anna Dobrowolska,2025-08-05 We are used to thinking that the sexual revolution of the 1960s and 1970s was an essentially Western phenomenon The surge in pornographic production effective oral contraception and new developments in fashion and popular culture all seem to be inextricably linked with a capitalist economy Yet little has still been written about the transformations of intimate lives on the other side of the Iron Curtain Was there a sexual revolution behind the Berlin Wall

And if so what areas of social life did it impact Did women in the words of Kristen Ghodsee have better sex under socialism Polish Sexual Revolutions Negotiating Sexuality and Modernity behind the Iron Curtain studies the history of sexuality in state socialist Poland in its European and global contexts focusing on how communism transformed both sexual discourses and intimate practices between 1945 and 1989 It reconfigures our understanding of the sexual revolution departing from the case study of Poland to complicate the oversimplified and much misused concepts of sexual modernity and progress Engaging with the most recent scholarship on sexuality in East Central Europe and a wide range of unused primary material including visual and material sources the monograph reassesses the role played by communist states in modernising their citizens approaches to sex Contrary to the stereotype which perceives the region as lagging behind the West in sexual matters and having to catch up after 1989 the book sheds light on the ambiguous and progressive histories of state socialist entanglements with sex to showcase alternative visions of sexual liberation In so doing and by focusing on forgotten genealogies of discussions of sexuality the monograph historicises the roots of contemporary debates on sex education LGBTQ and women s rights in the region

Landmark Essays on Rhetorics of Difference Damian Baca, Ellen Cushman, Jonathan Osborne, 2024-11-01 Landmark Essays on Rhetorics of Difference challenges the Eurocentric perspective from which the field of rhetoric is traditionally viewed Taking a step beyond the creation of alternative rhetorics that maintain the centrality of the European and Greco Roman tradition this volume argues on behalf of pluriversal rhetorics that coexist as equally important on their own terms A timely addition to the respected Landmark Essays series it will be invaluable to students of history of rhetoric literacy composition and writing studies
