If so, this is the place to start. If you self-publish a non-fiction book of interest to a defined target market or a book of fiction for people who read the genre you have produced, you can begin to promote it to interested readers. I have sold close to 10,000 books. So while I'm not an E.L. James author of the originally self-published 50 Shades of Grey, I am a happy and profitable self-published author. Perhaps you can become one too. Having said that, your desire to self-publish may not be all about book sales. You may be looking to write a book to give to family and friends. You may be looking to gain the credibility that publishing a book gives a speaker or workshop leader. You may have other reasons for publishing your book. No matter your reason, this book will answer many of your self-publishing questions, point you in the right direction, and get you started. In short, as the title says, this book will help you produce, price, and promote your self-published book. Blue Book of American Shipping ...,1907 Book Rate Bill United States. Congress. House.
