Leadership ,1988 The Impact of HIV/AIDS on the Health Sector ,2003 This series of studies provides answers to three broad questions To what extent does HIV AIDS affect the health system in South Africa What aspects or subsystems are most affected and How will the impact progress over time Health personnel and ambulatory and hospitalised patients across the nine provinces of South Africa were surveyed Specific questions addressed issues such as loss of staff due to illness absenteeism low staff morale and increased patient load Taking into account the anticipated increase in patient load in the public and private sector health facilities in South Africa the study makes recommendations not only for managing the HIV AIDS case load but also for the care and services provided to people with HIV AIDS in South Africa Mergers and Alliances in Higher Education Adrian Curaj,Luke Georghiou,Jennifer Cassingena Harper,Eva Egron-Polak,2015-03-31 This volume casts light on mergers and alliances in higher education by examining developments of this type in different countries It combines the direct experiences of those at the heart of such transformations university leaders and senior officials responsible for higher education policy with expert analysts of the systems concerned Higher education in Europe faces a series of major challenges The economic crisis has accelerated expectations of an increased role in addressing economic and societal challenges while at the same time putting pressure on available finances Broader trends such as shifting student demographics and expectations globalisation and mobility and new ways of working with business have contributed to these increased pressures In the light of these trends there have been moves both from national or regional agencies and from individual institutions to respond by combining resources either through collaborative arrangements or more fundamentally through mergers between two or more universities After an introductory chapter by the editors which establishes the context for mergers and alliances the book falls into two main parts Part 1 takes a national or regional perspective to give some sense of the historical context the wider drivers and the importance of these developments in these cases Included are both systemic accounts for countries as France Sweden Romania Russia Wales and England and specific cross cutting initiatives including a major facility at Magurele in Romania and a Spanish programme for promoting international campuses of excellence Part 2 is built from specific cases of universities either in mergers or alliances with examples from different countries such as France UK Romania Spain Germany Denmark Finland Switzerland A concluding chapter by the editors assesses these experiences and indicates the implications and future needs for understanding in this domain Outsmarting Apartheid Daniel Whitman,2014-04-09 For almost forty years under the watchful eye of the apartheid regime some three thousand South Africans participated in cultural and educational exchange with the United States Exposure to American democracy brought hope during a time when social and political change seemed unlikely In the end the process silently triumphed over the resistance of authorities and many of the individuals who participated in the program later participated in South Africa's first democratic elections in 1994 and now occupy key positions in academia, the media, parliament and the judiciary. In Outsmarting Apartheid, Daniel Whitman, former Program Development Officer at the US Embassy in Pretoria, interviews the South Africans and Americans who administered, advanced and benefited from government-funded exchange. The result is a detailed account of the workings and effectiveness of the US Information Agency and a demonstration of the value of soft power in easing democratic transition in a troubled area.

Southern Africa Today, 1991

The Deal Mandy Wiener, 2025-10-03

The results of the 29 May 2024 elections caused a seismic shift in South Africa's political landscape. For the first time in three decades of democracy, the ruling ANC did not emerge with a majority. With a constitutional deadline of just fourteen days to elect a president, the nation held its breath. Would the ANC forge a so-called doomsday coalition with the EFF and Patriotic Alliance, or a centrist partnership with its nemesis, the DA? What role would smaller parties play, and how would Jacob Zuma's disruptive MK party impact the negotiations? The Deal takes you behind the scenes of the negotiations that redefined a nation, providing exclusive interviews with party leaders, unique insights and stories, thoughtful analysis and vital context. From the exclusive Inanda Club to clandestine hotel basements and affluent private houses on Johannesburg's Westcliff Ridge, negotiating teams met under immense pressure. Amidst volatile markets, a skittish currency and intense social media scrutiny, every decision was critical. Witness the nail-biting moments as talks through bilaterals and back channels teetered on the brink of collapse and discover the personality clashes, factionalism and deft political manoeuvring that ultimately led to the establishment of the Government of National Unity. The Deal is a compelling record of history.
