Language History and Linguistic Description in Africa Ian Maddieson, Thomas J. Hinnebusch, 1998 Selected papers of the twenty sixth annual conference on African linguistics held Mar 23 25 1995 in Santa Monica Calif sponsored by the University of California Los Angeles      African Language Media Abiodun Salawu, 2020-11-16 This edited volume considers why the African language press is unstable and what can be done to develop quality African language journalism into a sustainable business Providing an overview of the African language journalism landscape this book examines the challenges of operating sustainable African language media businesses The chapters explore the political economy and management of African language media and consider case studies of the successes and failures of African language newspapers as well as the challenges of developing quality journalism Covering print and digital newspapers and broadcast journalism this book will be of interest to scholars of media and journalism in Africa      Controlled Natural Language B. Davis, C.M. Keet, A. Wyner, 2018-09-12 Controlled natural languages CNLs are based on natural language and apply restrictions on vocabulary grammar and or semantics They fall broadly into 3 groups Some are designed to improve communication for non native speakers of the respective natural language in others the restrictions are to facilitate the use of computers to analyze texts for example to improve computer aided translation and a third group of CNLs are designed to enable reliable automated reasoning and formal knowledge representation from seemingly natural texts This book presents the 11 papers selected from 14 submitted and delivered at the sixth in the series of workshops on Controlled Natural Language CNL 2018 held in Maynooth Ireland in August 2018 The papers cover a full spectrum of controlled natural languages ranging from human oriented to machine processable controlled languages and from more theoretical results to interfaces reasoning engines and the real life application of CNLs The book will be of interest to all those working with controlled natural language whatever their approach      Speaking Subjects in Multilingualism Research Judith Purkarthofer, Mi-Cha Flubacher, 2022-07-22 This book discusses salient moments of multilingual encounters and brings together contributions focused on the interplay between language use by individuals and societies and language related inequalities or opportunities for speakers The chapters demonstrate how biographical and speaker centred approaches can contribute to an understanding of linguistic diversity how researchers can empirically account for lived experiences of languages and how such accounts are embedded in a larger discussion on social inequality Together the chapters make a powerful case for the importance of speaker centred methodologies in multilingual and multilingualism research The book is a rich source of theoretical and methodological reflections and will thus be a valuable resource for both experienced researchers and students beginning to explore biographical research methods      Focus, 2001      South African journal of African languages, 2005      Demenageries, 2015-06-29 Demenageries Thinking of Animals after Derrida is a collection of essays on animality following Jacques Derrida's work The Western philosophical tradition separated animals from men by excluding the former from everything that was considered proper to man laughing suffering mourning and above all thinking The animal has traditionally been considered the absolute Other of humans This radical otherness has served as the rationale for the domination exploitation and slaughter of animals What Derrida called la pens e de l animal which means both thinking concerning the animal and animal thinking may help us understand differently such apparently human features as language thought and writing It may also help us think anew about such highly philosophical concerns as differences otherness the end s of history and the world at large Thanks to the ethical and epistemological crisis of Western humanism animality has become an almost fashionable topic However Demenageries is the first collection to take Derrida s thinking on animal thinking as a starting point a way of reflecting not only on animals but starting from them in order to address a variety of issues from a vast range of theoretical perspectives philosophy literature cultural theory anthropology ethics politics religion feminism postcolonialism and of course posthumanism

Global Academic Publishing Mary Jane Curry, Theresa Lillis, 2017-11-22 This book reports on the state of academic journal publishing in a range of geolinguistic contexts including locations where pressures to publish in English have developed more recently than in other parts of the world e g Kazakhstan Colombia in addition to contexts that have not been previously explored or well documented The three sections push the boundaries of existing research on global publishing which has mainly focused on how scholars respond to pressures to publish in English by highlighting research on evaluation policies journals responses in non Anglophone contexts to pressures for English medium publishing and pedagogies for supporting scholars in their publishing efforts
