

My name is Jack. My name and I am very poor. One day, my mum told me to sell our only cow. A nice old man gave me five magic beans for her. I was excited, but my mum was angry. She threw the beans out the window.

There's no such thing as magic beans!

I'm sorry.

When I woke up in the morning, I saw a giant beanstalk outside. I climbed up the beanstalk, and went inside a giant castle in the clouds. In the kitchen, I saw a giant woman. I asked her for some food because I was very hungry. She gave me some bread and some milk.

When my home was rising, I thought I wanted an Englishman in the kitchen. My wife said there was no boy in the kitchen. So, I ate dinner, counted my gold, and went to bed. The next morning, a sack of gold was missing!

Yes, twenty shillings...

Are you and the giant?

After some time, I came home and thought I wanted an Englishman again. Again, my wife told me that there was no boy in the kitchen. So, again, I ate dinner, told my husband to buy me a golden egg, and went to bed. The next morning, my hen was missing!

Perfect, a hen that lays golden eggs!

After a while, Jack went back up the beanstalk and he asked the wife for more food. While he was eating, the husband came home. He could speak Jack and said he was going to grind his bones to make bread. The wife said that there was no boy there. So, the giant ate his dinner, because he was magical, and went to bed. Jack tried to take the hen's back to his house, but the hen yelled, "Help!"

Help!!!

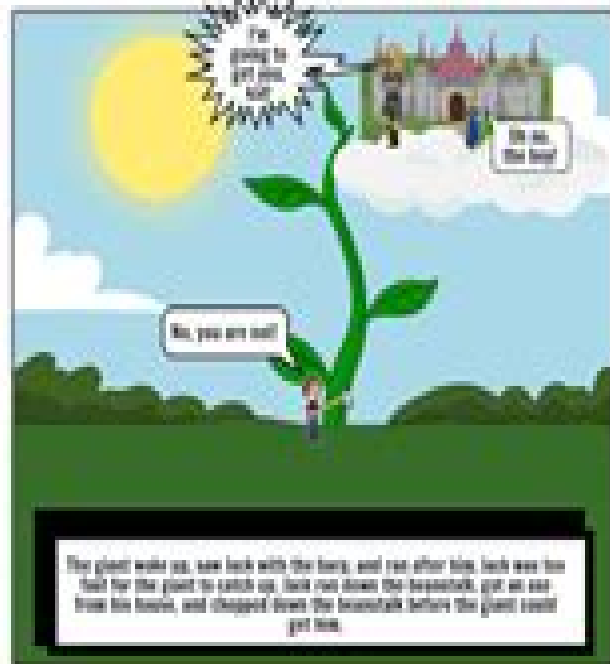

Oh no!

I'm going to get you, boy!

Oh no, the boy!

No, you are not!

The giant woke up, saw Jack with the harp, and ran after him. Jack was too fast for the giant to catch up. Jack ran down the beanstalk, got an axe from his house, and chopped down the beanstalk before the giant could get him.
