Ambient Literature Tom Abba, Jonathan Dovey, Kate Pullinger, 2020-11-30 This book considers how a combination of place based writing and location responsive technologies produce new kinds of literary experiences Building on the work done in the Ambient Literature Project 2016 2018 this book argues that these encounters constitute new literary forms in which the authored text lies at the heart of an embodied and mediated experience The visual sonic social and historic resources of place become the elements of a live and emergent mise en scene Specific techniques of narration including hallucination memory history place based writing and drama as well as reworking of traditional storytelling forms combine with the work of app and user experience design interaction software authoring and GIS geographical information systems to produce ambient experiences where the user reads a textual and sonic literary space These experiences are temporary ambiguous and unpredictable in their meaning but unlike the theatre the gallery or the cinema they take place in the everyday shared world The book explores the potentiality of a new literary form produced by the exchange between location aware cultural objects writers and readers This book and the work it explores lays the ground for a new poetics of situated writing and reading practices

Design, User Experience, and Usability. Design for Contemporary Interactive Environments Aaron Marcus, Elizabeth Rosenzweig, 2020-07-10 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 9th International Conference on Design User Experience and Usability DUXU 2020 held as part of the 22nd International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2020 in Copenhagen Denmark in July 2020 The conference was held virtually due to the COVID 19 pandemic From a total of 6326 submissions a total of 1439 papers and 238 posters has been accepted for publication in the HCII 2020 proceedings The 50 papers included in this volume were organized in topical sections on interactions in intelligent and IoT environments usability aspects of handheld and mobile devices designing games and immersive experiences and UX studies in automotive and transport

As If By Chance Kevin Reed Donley, 2023-12-21 The age of print was begun by Johannes Gutenberg in 1440 in Mainz Germany His invention of the mechanized and mass production of print replaced the previous handwriting of the scribes and was a transformative achievement It was both the product of and a catalyst for far reaching intellectual social and political changes that began during the Renaissance and continued for centuries right up to the present The age of electronic media was begun by Steve Jobs in 1985 in Cupertino California His integration of the elements of desktop publishing personal computer page layout software page description language and laser printer replaced the previous photomechanical processes of printing and was a transformative achievement It was both the product of and a catalyst for the intellectual social and political changes during the digital revolution that will extend for generations into the future This book discusses these two bookends in the age of print It follows the transitions and stages of innovation in printing between the fifteenth and twenty first centuries and shows how the inventors responsible for this progress are bound together in a chain of revolutionary technical change called disruptive continuity While the works of Gutenberg and Jobs are separated by more than five centuries there are striking parallels and differences between these two innovations They both sparked the quantitative expansion of literacy and the spread of knowledge around the world However the emergence of electronic publishing especially in its present day social media forms has brought a vast increase in the consumption of information while also heralding a qualitative transformation that places the tools of wireless and mobile multimedia publishing into the hands of billions of people on earth Much in the same way that there was a historical lag between Gutenberg s invention and the full impact of printing on the world so too in our own time the long term societal consequences of electronic publishing have yet to be realized
