The War of Our Childhood Wolfgang W. E. Samuel, 2002 One survivor tells of the fire bombing of Dresden Another recounts the pervasive fear of marauding Russian and Czech bandits raping and killing Children recall fathers who were only photographs and mothers who were saviors and heroes These are typical in the stories collected in The War of Our Childhood Memories of World War II For this book Wolfgang W E Samuel a childhood refugee himself after the fall of Nazi Germany interviewed twenty seven men and women who as children by chance and sheer resilience survived Allied bombs invading armies hunger and chaos Our eyes carried no hate only recognition of what was Samuel writes of his childhood Peace was an abstraction The world we Kinder knew nearly always had the word war appended to it Samuel s heartfelt narratives from these innocent survivors are invariably riveting and often terrifying Each engrossing story has perilous and tragic moments school children in Leuna who are sent home during an air raid but are strafed as moving targets fathers who exist only as distant figures returning to their families long after the war or not at all mothers who are raped and tortured families who are forced into a seemingly endless relocation that replicates the terrors of war itself In capturing such experiences from nearly every region of Germany and involving people of every socio economic class this is a collection of unique memories but each account contributes to a cumulative understanding of the war that is more personal than strategic surveys and histories For Samuel and the survivors he interviewed agony and fright were part of everyday life just as were play wondrous experience and above all perseverance My focus Samuel writes is on the astounding ability of a generation of German children to emerge from debilitating circumstances as sane and productive human beings Wolfgang W E Samuel a retired colonel in the U S Air Force is the author of German Boy A Refugee s Story and I Always Wanted to Fly America s Cold War Airmen both published by University Press of Mississippi He lives in Fairfax Va Sister Water Nancy Willard,2005 An absorbing story about childhood and the search for a sense of place in the urban and natural environments of the Midwest The widowed Jessie Woolman now in her seventies her two married daughters Ellen and Martha and two grandchildren live in Ann Arbor where the family owns a museum that harbors a meandering stream and historical artifacts of the region bounded by the rivers Just as Jessie s aging mind begins to wander Ellen s husband dies in a car accident and the Woolman family begins a new journey led by two very different men Harvey Mack a developer with an eye on the Woolman property and the grieving Ellen and Sam Theopolis a mystic hired to care for Jessie Sam becomes both Harvey s rival and a healing presence for the family until a crisis descends and he too needs the protection of the Woolmans innocent belief in the saving power of love Combining sorrow and grief with considerable light hearted wit and eccentric characters Sister Water is a novel that will reach old and young readers alike Through her lyrical prose author Nancy Willard draws on the rich style of magical realism to create a narrative flow that is at once powerful and seductive Important to the Landscapes of Childhood series this novel raises significant questions about the state of childhood and how that state affects adult sensibilities The Country Gentleman ,1921 Studies in English Composition Harriet Louise Keeler,Emma C. Davis,1897 The Classical World ,1928 Old Mountain Dues Carl E. Wirtanen,2008-12-18 It is the time when tourists from New York City Boston and even Chicago as well as other locations in the general vicinity would come to relax and rejoice in the bucolic scenery and grand vistas of the Catskill Mountains which were in Greene County New York In the middle 1800 s roads were bad and most travel to the hotels near and in the mountains was by stage over independently owned turnpike toll roads Early attempts by entrepreneurs and visionaries were fraught with delay and failure as they attempted to put the Iron Horse to work replacing the stage One project that actually got to the point of operation even though it wasn t completed was the

Canajoharie Catskill Rail Road This very early railroad lasted about two years from 1838 to 1840 and then went bankrupt By 1880 several hotels had been built along the ridge in the heart of the Catskills While they weren't as elegant or well located as the Catskill Mountain House which was built on a ledge overlooking the Hudson River Valley they provided increased opportunity for another group of entrepreneurs This new group had forgotten about the old C C and began to plan to bring more people to the mountain hotels via railroads Another entrepreneur from Pennsylvania George Harding began building an even grander hotel than Beach's Catskill Mountain House just south of it and overlooking the same valley He opened the Kaaterskill Hotel in 1882 and immediately began to work to get a railroad connecting to his hotel The owner of the Catskill Mountain House as well as the Day Line and Evening Line Steam ship companies owners and investors planned and began building the Catskill Mountain Railroad This railroad would run from where the steamships docked at The Landing at the mouth of the Catskill Creek and the Hudson River to the foot of the escarpment below the Catskill Mountain House From there tourists would take a stage up the Mountain House Road to the Catskill Mountain House preferably or to other hotels Their goal was to provide fast and comfortable transportation to as close as they could get to the Catskill Mountain House With the threat of the Kaaterskill Hotel and the other railroads imminent the Catskill Mountain Railroad was built in 1881 and opened through South Cairo on the old Catskill Canajoharie road bed and then late in 1882 on to Lawrenceville at the foot of the mountain As the railroad looked forward to a good year in 1883 as its first full season of operation it still needed more revenue to be fiscally viable This is the background of the times in which the events of this tale take place in two weeks in early April 1883 Lester Overmeyer was born early in the 19th century into the hotel business in Coxsackie and worked in his family's hotel for many years and then went to work for the hoteliers that leased the Mountain House Hotel on South Mountain for some time While there he decided he'd like to buy that hotel and build it into his own business When he lost the opportunity to purchase it to C L Beach he vowed to get it back someday somehow As the years passed he became successful in New York City and invested in hotels in competition with Beach's Mountain House He even built his own hotel in Tannersville to compete with Beach and participates in Harding's Kaaterskill Hotel venture as a way to indulge his hatred of Beach However Beach is much more successful and aggressive than Lester had foreseen When he learns of Beach's attempts to build a new railroad to the Mountain House he decides must take action to keep him from becoming even more successful in competing with Lester's investments About the time he made this decision a young brand new Methodist minister Riley Gillen comes to Leeds New York It just so happens he used to be a police officer in New York City but for some reason he does not like to share with anyone decided to make a major career change
