Fried Rice Dry Mustard Recipe:

The Hakka Cookbook Linda Lau Anusasananan, 2012-10-08 Veteran food writer Linda Lau Anusasananan opens the world of Hakka cooking to Western audiences in this fascinating chronicle that traces the rustic cuisine to its roots in a history of multiple migrations Beginning in her grandmother's kitchen in California Anusasananan travels to her family's home in China and from there fans out to embrace Hakka cooking across the globe including Hong Kong Taiwan Singapore Malaysia Canada Peru and beyond More than thirty home cooks and chefs share their experiences of the Hakka diaspora as they contribute over 140 recipes for everyday Chinese comfort food as well as more elaborate festive specialties This book likens Hakka cooking to a nomadic type of soul food or a hearty cooking tradition that responds to a shared history of hardship and oppression Earthy honest and robust it reflects the diversity of the estimated 75 million Hakka living in China and greater Asia and in scattered communities around the world yet still retains a core flavor and technique Anusasananan's deep personal connection to the tradition together with her extensive experience testing and developing recipes make this book both an intimate journey of discovery and an exciting introduction to a vibrant cuisine
