Reflections on School Integration Mokubung O. Nkomo, Carolyn McKinney, Linda Chisholm, 2004 School integration means among other things that the divisions created by apartheid need to be addressed systematically and systemically Integration is not merely about changing the racial demographics of learner and educator bodies It means schools changing to meet the needs of all children fostering meaningful interaction among learners in the classroom on the playground and in extra mural activities as well as instilling a human rights culture It means constructing curricula texts and pedagogies that are informed by a democratic ethos and it requires teachers school managers and communities that are equipped to promote a democratic school environment In short it is about inclusivity and social cohesion And the issue of integration is as pertinent internationally as it is in South Africa questions of race racism citizenship and diversity are central to school systems throughout the world This book contains the proceedings of a colloquium held in October 2003 attended by leading South African and international researchers to take stock of the status quo in school integration and identify new directions research should be taking to support the process of change

Safe Spaces Cornelia Roux, 2012-10-26 This book examines the crucial issues affecting Human Rights Education in contexts of culture religious and societal diversity It exhibits an impressive scholarly achievement capturing and combining the insights of both established academics and emerging researchers Each author succeeds in distilling the knowledge of their particular fields of interest as well as conveying the essence of their intuitive understanding and the richness of the context This book considers a variety of connected content and methodological issues in three major sections Philosophical and policy perspectives Gender discourses diverse perspectives and Discourses on narratives as safe spaces The Edition is further strengthened by allowing international reviewers the opportunity of engaging with the contributors in the Introduction and Conclusion an innovative departure from conventional formats and which will provide a global perspective to the readers The focus of the various chapters succeeds in establishing both a foundation and platform for dialogue surrounding human rights and human rights education in modern policy and governance Aptly named Safe Spaces the Edition offers in depth and credible safe nuances spaces in terms of the somewhat reified concept of human rights at a time when human rights remains a highly topical and contested international issue As such the book imparts an immense scope of theoretical and empirical perspectives reflected by the distinguished intellectuals who navigate the terrain of their respective disciplines with profound erudition This book represents a collaborative effort of immeasurable value This exemplary edition is both timeous and will prove timeless

Progress, Change and Development in Early Childhood Education and Care Elizabeth Coates, Dorothy Faulkner, 2017-10-02 In 2000 the Millennium Development Goals set out targets aimed at creating a safer more prosperous and more equitable world If these goals were to be achieved children s lives would indeed be transformed In this collection achievements against these targets are identified with each contributor examining the progress made in early years provision in Australia China England Greece the Netherlands Portugal South Africa and Sweden They highlight the priorities and agendas of their respective governments and focus on the trends and issues which are particularly relevant to each situation thereby revealing the social and educational inequalities that persist across countries A common theme running through this volume concerns the political tensions that arise when governments and educators hold fundamentally different views about the nature and purpose of early years education and the needs of children and families It is clear that although the past two decades have seen many changes in attitude towards the importance of the early years of life politically economically and environmentally much still remains to be done if the Millennium Development Goals for young children and their families are to be fully met Despite this this volume demonstrates that those who work in this area continue to experience a deep concern for the well being of young children which transcends cultures frontiers and political and sectarian divides This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Early Years Education Focus, 2001 Systematic Reviews of Research in Basic Education in South Africa Felix Maringe, 2021-04-09 Maringe ought to be commended for putting together an invaluable contribution to our understanding of research into a complex education system in South Africa This volume provides a useful foundation to the current state of education quality in South Africa including the impact of interventions It also brings to the fore challenges still facing education transformation The evidence presented which taken together lays out a coherent view of how improvements could be made Albert Chanee Head of Planning Gauteng Department of Education For too long the weight of educational scholarship produced in South Africa has been limited to that simple and standard form called the literature review Now for the first time education researchers are provided with an African based text on the concepts and methods of conducting systematic reviews In this exceptional work of editorship Felix Maringe brings together some of the leading researchers on South African education to model and demonstrate how to review a significant body of research on a chosen topic which is adjudicated strictly on the basis of the quality and efficacy of the evidence in hand I have no doubt that this remarkable book will become a standard reference for educational researchers in and beyond the African continent It will also lift the quality of educational inquiry by equipping a new generation of scholars with the capacity for doing evidence based research that compels the attention of policymakers planners and practitioners alike Prof Jonathan Jansen Stellenbosch University South African National Bibliography, 1998-07 Drum, 2007 Journal of Psychology in Africa, 2008 Journal of Psychology in Africa (south of the Sahara, the Caribbean, and Afro-Latin America), 2008 Southern African Books in Print, 1994 IsiZulu South Africa.
