Butterfield, 2017-04-19 This book about religious struggle studies four texts from postexilic Judah and applies them first to Judah and then importantly to modern America Two of these texts the books of Jonah and Job speak out in favor of the theology of grace and against the theology of retribution as advocated by the Jerusalem hardliners This struggle to define God continues even today Despite the biblical evidence especially the example of Jesus many Americans still believe in the God of retribution Two other texts the book of Ruth and the story of Rahab demonstrate that if people reject xenophobia nativism and misogyny the entire community is blessed Since xenophobia nativism and misogyny are rampant in modern America this message is rather timely The last chapter argues that it is the mission of both synagogues and churches to define God correctly and then to help people overcome their resentment and prejudices and become partners with God but that many predominantly white churches have failed in their mission as evidenced by the fact that so many of their members voted for Donald Trump
