Berkovitz, 2018-02-05 Focusing on the ideology of regeneration Jay Berkovitz traces the social economic and religious struggles of nineteenth century French Jews Nineteenth century French Jewry was a community struggling to meet the challenges of emancipation and modernity This struggle with its origins in the founding of the French nation constitutes the core of modern Jewish identity With the Revolution of 1789 came the collapse of the social political and philosophical foundations of exclusiveness forcing French society and the Jews to come to terms with the meaning of emancipation Over time the enormous challenge that emancipation posed for traditional Jewish beliefs became evident In the 1830s a more comprehensive ideology of regeneration emerged through the efforts of younger Jewish scholars and intellectuals A response to the social and religious implications of emancipation it was characterized by the demand for the elimination of rituals that violated the French conceptions of civilization and social integration a drive for greater administrative centralization and the quest for inter communal and ethnic unity In its various elements regeneration formed a distinct ideology of emancipation that was designed to mediate Jewish interaction with French society and culture Jay Berkovitz reveals the complexities inherent in the processes of emancipation and modernization focusing on the efforts of French Jewish leaders to come to terms with the social and religious implications of modernity All in all his emphasis on the intellectual history of French Jewry provides a new perspective on a significant chapter of Jewish history Consumer Behavior in the Internet Era Gong Sun, Lester Johnson, Jie Li, 2022-11-28 Empowering Minds: Adult Education in India Khritish Swargiary, Kavita Roy, 2023-05-01

Jews and the New Europe Mark Levene, 1992-09-01 The First World War was a major watershed in modern Jewish history Out of it came the Balfour Declaration a first critical step in the creation of the State of Israel but also a radical redrafting of the political map of eastern and central Europe with dramatic and potentially tragic consequences for its dispersed but substantial Jewish minority In this lucid work which was awarded the 1991 Fraenkel Prize for Contemporary History Mark Levene approaches these developments through the diplomatic endeavours of Lucien Wolf a British Jew who was both one of the chief proponents of the Balfour Declaration and co architect of the Minorities Treaty that provided an internationally endorsed framework for Jewish existence in Europe after the First World War Through an analysis of Wolf s diplomacy Levene examines how Jewish interests throughout Europe were affected by the Great War and how they were perceived by the warring powers Levene shows how british support for Zionism was bound up with misconceptions about the Jewish role in Europe notably that the revolutionary movement in Russia was Jewish inspired and Jewish led Equally however he shows how the diplomatic activities of Wolf and his Jewish contemporaries heralded the entry of world Jewry as a perceived force in modern politics and how Wolf himself was preoccupied with eastern Europe and its jews at a precarious time He also analyses how the war affected Jewish political self perceptions reviewing the context between assimilationists and Zionists in the broader framework of war peace and international diplomacy His consideration of their conflicting claims says much that is of relevance to the contemporary discussion of Zionism as well as to the problems of ethnic and religious minorities in nation states Journal of the Royal Society of Arts Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain),1917
