Sensing Sacred Jennifer Baldwin, 2016-08-30 Sensing Sacred is an edited volume that explores the critical intersection of religion and body through the religious lens of practical theology with an emphasis on sensation as the embodied means in which human beings know themselves others and the divine in the world The manuscript argues that all human interaction and practice including religious praxis engages body through at least one of the human senses touch smell hearing taste sight kinestics proprioception Unfortunately body and more specifically and ironically sensation is eclipsed in contemporary academic scholarship that is inherently bent toward the realm of theory and ideas This is unfortunate because it neglects bodies physical or communal as the repository and generator of culturally conditioned ideas and theory It is ironic because all knowledge transmission minimally requires several senses including sight touch and hearing Sensing Sacred is organized into two parts The first section devotes a chapter to each human sense as an avenue of accessing religious experience while the second section explores religious practices as they specifically focus on one or more senses The overarching aim of the volume is to explicitly highlight each sense and utilize the theoretical lenses of practical theology to bring to vivid life the connections between essential sensation and religious thinking and practice The Disciple Maker's Handbook Bobby Harrington, Josh Robert Patrick, 2017-02-07 Many people believe that discipleship is important but they need help In fact the vast majority of Christians report that they have never been personally discipled by a more mature follower of Jesus Is it any wonder that they have a difficult time knowing how to disciple others If making disciples of Jesus is the greatest cause on earth how should we equip people to do it This handbook is a practical guide for how to embrace the discipleship lifestyle being a disciple of Jesus and how to make other disciples of Jesus With contributions from pastors and teachers like Francis Chan Jeff Vanderstelt Bill Hull Jim Putman KP Yohannan and Robert Coleman the authors present seven elements that are necessary for disciple making to occur Jesus the original disciple maker and centerpiece of discipleship Holy Spirit fuels the disciple making process Intentionality making disciples utilizing a strategy and a roadmap Relationships creating a loving genuine connection with others who trust and follow Jesus Bible using the Word of God as the manual for making disciples Journey forging a traceable growth story from a new birth to spiritual parenthood Multiply reproducing the discipleship process so that the disciple becomes a disciple maker Whether you are a parent who wants to disciple your children a small group leader who wants to disciple those in your group or a church leader who wants to disciple future leaders the seven key elements in this handbook form a framework for understanding discipleship that can be applied in countless situations In addition there are questions provided in each section to help you think through how to apply the material to your disciple making efforts
