Cole,2017-10-16 This volume has been brought together to generate new ideas and provoke discussion about what constitutes arts education in the twenty first century both within the institution and beyond Art Artists and Pedagogy is intended for educators who teach the arts from early childhood to tertiary level artists working in the community or those studying arts in education from undergraduate to Masters or PhD level From the outset this book is not only about arts in practice but also about what distinguishes the arts in education Exploring two different philosophies of education the book asks what the purpose of the arts is in education in the twenty first century With specific reference to the work of Gert Biesta questions are asked as to the relation of the arts to the world and what kind of society we may wish to envisage The second philosophical set of ideas comes from Deleuze and Guattari looking in more depth at how we configure art the artist and the role played by the state and global capital in deciding on what art education has become This book provides educators with new ways to engage with arts focusing specifically on art music dance drama and film studies At a time when many teachers are looking for a means to re assert the role of the arts in education this text provides many answers with reference to case studies and in depth arguments from some of the world s leading academics in the arts philosophy and education Supervision in the Mental Health Professions Joyce Scaife,2003-08-29 Draws on over two decades of experience to illustrate ways of thinking about and doing supervision Using practical examples she explores often encountered dilemmas Ecology of Freshwater and Estuarine Wetlands Dr. Darold P. Batzer,Rebecca R. Sharitz,2014-12-06 This second edition of this important and authoritative survey provides students and researchers with up to date and accessible information about the ecology of freshwater and estuarine wetlands Prominent scholars help students understand both general concepts of different wetland types as well as complex topics related to these dynamic physical environments Careful syntheses review wetland soils hydrology and geomorphology abiotic constraints for wetland plants and animals microbial ecology and biogeochemistry development of wetland plant communities wetland animal ecology and carbon dynamics and ecosystem processes In addition contributors document wetland regulation policy and assessment in the US and provide a clear roadmap for adaptive management and restoration of wetlands New material also includes an expanded review of the consequences for wetlands in a changing global environment Ideally suited for wetlands ecology courses Ecology of Freshwater and Estuarine Wetlands Second Edition includes updated content enhanced images many in color and innovative pedagogical elements that guide students and interested readers through the current state of our wetlands Critical Animal and Media Studies Núria Almiron,Matthew Cole,Carrie P. Freeman,2015-10-14 This book aims to put the speciesism debate and the treatment of non human animals on the agenda of critical media studies and to put media studies on the agenda of animal ethics researchers Contributors examine the convergence of media and animal ethics from theoretical philosophical discursive social constructionist and political economic perspectives The book is divided into three sections foundations representation and responsibility outlining the different disciplinary approaches application to media studies and covering how non human animals and the relationship between humans and non humans are represented by the mass media concluding with suggestions for how the media as a major producer of cultural norms and values related to non human animals and how we treat them might improve such representations Cumulated Index Medicus ,1971

Laboratory Applications in Clinical Pediatrics Irving J. Wolman,1957 Orality and Literacy Kristina Rose Fagan,Natalia Khanenko-Friesen,2011-01-01 Orality and Literacy investigates the interactions of the oral and the literate through close studies of particular cultures at specific historical moments Rejecting the great divide theory of orality and literacy as separate and opposite to one another the contributors posit that whatever meanings the two concepts have are products of their ever changing relationships to one another Through topics as diverse as Aboriginal Canadian societies Ukrainian Canadian narratives and communities in ancient Greece Medieval Europe and twentieth century Asia these cross disciplinary essays reveal the powerful ways in which cultural assumptions such as those about truth disclosure performance privacy and ethics can affect a society s uses of and approaches to both the written and the oral The fresh perspectives in Orality and Literacy reinvigorate the subject illuminating complex interrelationships rather than relying on universal generalizations about how literacy and orality function *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
